4	Some of my friends asked, "Why do you call her Grammy?" "Well," I said. "It's because she doesn't like to be called Grandma. When we ask her why, she just laughs."
5	Our grammy is very cool. She does things most grammies don't do. She likes being silly. Sometimes we call her Silly Grammy.
6	Ana and I were getting excited to visit Grammy. So I called her on the phone. Now I am going to share what Grammy said when I called her. Then you'll know just how cool our grammy really is!
7	"I miss you!" said Grammy. "We miss you, too!" I said. "Come visit, and we will have a special vacation," said Grammy.

The Use of Documents in Pharaonic Egypt Christopher Eyre,2013-10-31 This volume reconstructs the history of documentary practice in pharaonic Egypt from the early Old Kingdom to the major administrative changes imposed by the colonizing regimes of the Graeco Roman period Relating administrative and legal practice to the physical practicalities of the media used for writing and through the close reading of primary textual sources it examines how different types of documents private and official were created and used It explores the ways in which the writing of documents was embedded deeply in the interactions between customary social practices which were essentially oral and in the penetration of outside hierarchies into local government Eyre argues that the potential of the written document as evidence or proof was never fully exploited in the pharaonic period even though writing was a powerful symbol and display of hierarchical authority He presents the government as a system rooted in personal prestige and patronage structures lacking the effective departmental hierarchies and archive systems that would represent a true bureaucratic system
