Mentoring in the Criminal Justice Professions Frank A. Colaprete,2009 The tradition of moving from one job to another in the criminal justice profession with the belief that on departure a new person will be brought in to assume the duties of his or her predecessor is archaic and ineffective It is rare to replace someone and have the benefit of his or her counsel and experience in learning the nuances of the job and its responsibilities Mentoring provides a framework whether informal or formal to interact support transfer knowledge and guide the prot g to the desired goal This book provides a blueprint of mentoring theory and practice testing evaluati

The Blackwell Handbook of Mentoring Tammy D. Allen,Lillian T. Eby,2011-08-24 Cutting across the fields of psychology

management education counseling social work and sociology The Blackwell Handbook of Mentoring reveals an innovative multi disciplinary approach to the practice and theory of mentoring Provides a complete multi disciplinary look at the practice and theory of mentoring and demonstrates its advantages Brings together for the first time expert researchers from the three primary areas of mentoring workplace academy and community Leading scholars provide critical analysis on important literature concerning theoretical approaches and methodological issues in the field Final section presents an integrated perspective on mentoring relationships and projects a future agenda for the field Handbook of Adolescent Psychology, Volume 2 Richard M. Lerner, Laurence Steinberg, 2009-04-06 The study of and interest in adolescence in the field of psychology and related fields continues to grow necessitating an expanded revision of this seminal work This multidisciplinary handbook edited by the premier scholars in the field Richard Lerner and Laurence Steinberg and with contributions from the leading researchers reflects the latest empirical work and growth in the field The Mentor's Guide Laura Gail Lunsford, 2021-11-29 A definitive resource that pulls together evidence from psychology education and organizational studies this fully updated second edition translates research into practice and serves as a practical handbook on how to set up run and evaluate any mentoring program Despite ever growing interest there are few helpful resources for program managers and mentoring coordinators This book sheds needed light on mentoring behaviors the stages of mentoring elements of high quality relationships and how to recognize and avoid dysfunctional ones Step by step guidance will enable readers to Understand what mentoring is and is not Assess their mentoring program using a clear framework Work through steps to design or redesign an effective mentoring program Draw on real world examples to assess and improve programs Benefit from all new material for this second edition including a chapter on e mentoring and in depth case studies as well as updated information on culturally intelligent mentoring and more If you manage or support a mentoring program then this handbook is for you Human resource professionals across industries will gain ideas on how to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of mentoring while administrators in higher education will value the content on formal mentorship programs for faculty members graduate students and undergraduates A Guide for Developing a Culture of Caring Through Nursing Peer Mentorship Programs Deborah Kramer, 2024-08-19 This book describes in detail how to develop successful programs of nursing mentorship utilizing concepts of caring that yields a strong caring body of nurses who will be nurse thrivers as they find fulfilment and meaning in their professional commitment and will train others to do the same The mentorship program is the ticket to success that many students need to complete their degree program prevent burnout pass the nursing NCLEX examination and remain in the workforce after graduation The current attrition rate in baccalaureate nursing programs is 25 50% as is the attrition rate in the first 2 years of employment of new RN s entering the workforce Burnout is due to a lack of care and support for helping the students navigate the rigor and demands of the nursing program Creating a community of learners with caring and support creates an environment that fosters academic engagement and success The unique aspect of this book is its focus on creating a caring environment to support the students helping them develop caring skills empathy resilience and their own self care developing the skills for success beyond their educational process into the workforce This book integrates all patterns of knowing personal aesthetic empiric and ethical and provides the missing link of peer mentorship necessary to the development of resilient emancipated nursing students and graduates capable of working in community with others to establish cultures of care in health care This is a must have resource for transformation of nursing education in the next century Foreword by Dr Margaret McClure
