Marshall's organization is a relatively young organization. The members are expected to be 18 or older and have attained at least an intermediate-high-school or college degree. However, members need not be students or college graduates. The club was the first in the United States that gave boys aged as low as 14 the opportunity to learn the principles of the program, and then engaged in meaningful service projects. As the organization's membership, programs, and the financial resources supporting the program grew, the program's membership was limited only to those in the United States and invited speakers, but had no contact with those that sought entrance. The club was formed and the program continued. The growth of the program was very noticeable and the club was able to continue to grow and expand.
