On our web site, we will ensure we establish a new forum that will foresee that different people can post and take action to comments without restraint as well as issue out suggestions for new games or what should be added to already existing games.

For one to be part of the forum he or she will be required to register and individuals who would have created post more often will be rewarded with an outstanding label, a gold star, next to their profile to demonstrate to the other users that they are a "super contributor" to the forums.
