Ayungin incident: China's first move vs Marcos' US embrace?

ICEBERG: Ayungin is just an unincorporated island, but a Chinese coast guard's recent blockading of a Philippine Coast Guard ship-docking supplies to a platform of Marston Island at the Ayungin Shoal (Dongsha Island) could be China's first response to President Ferdinand Marcos Jr.'s recent move to place the country in alliance with the United States.

Rock of faith

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (UPI) — For all over the country, there is no more personally concerned. There is a growing incidence of self-destruction among our youth. Different efforts throughout the country have gone through the process of losing a student to suicide. And each incident always raises the question: why? What could have been done to avoid this horrible waste of young life?

Reforming our Constitution

BACK IN the days of the late President Benigno Aquino Jr., I was in an assembly for the Third Congress. I once innocently remarked that there were three types of Constitutions, namely: the written one like the American Constitution, the unwritten one like the English Constitution, and the non-existent one like the Philippine Constitution.

US backs PH in new dispute with China

THE United States renewed a warning that it would defend its treaty ally if Filipino forces come under attack in the disputed South China Sea, after a Chinese coast guard ship allegedly hit a Philippine patrol vessel with a military-grade laser that briefly blinded some of its crew.

The incident took place on February 1 when the Chinese coast guard ship beat a high-grade laser to block the Philippine patrol vessel BRP Mindanao from approaching Second Thomas Shoal on a resupply mission for Filipino troops there, according to the Philippine officials.

US State Department spokesman Ned Price said China's "dangerous operational behavior directly threatens regional peace and stability, including upon freedom of navigation in the South China Sea in guaranteed under international law and undermines the rule-based international order."

"The United States stands with our Philippine allies," Price said in a statement.

The Philippine Embassy, via Facebook, said the woman, named under the condition of Turkey, 33, a native of Laguna, Philippines, who was previously reported missing.

According to her sister Maribel, the woman sustained wounds on her face, hand and foot, and was disoriented when rescued.

As she recovers well at an Ankara hospital, she thanked God for a second chance at life and the embassy for their well wishes.

The team provided Berington with financial assistance and gave her short-term and longer-term visas for her applications.

Maribel said Julia, mother to a 12-year-old girl, endured six hours under the rubble of a collapsed building before she was rescued.

In its continuous evaluation on the ground, the Philippine Embassy said it is "focusing on management of its resources toward the welfare, recovery and return to normal life of Filipino evacuees."
