SAMPLE ESSAY #4

Narrative Essay

Tables of Years

In the fourth grade, I decided to perform in our school's annual talent show and picked the song "Faster" by Justin Sparks, which was popular at the time, and just and practiced for months. The day finally came for me to perform in front of the school in the school's "auditorium." With my sister, classmates, and teachers were I took the stage ready to sing my heart out! All of a sudden, a fire "boom" started in ears... then it got louder... and louder.

Suddenly, I realized that what seemed like the entire audience was leaving their seat, humiliated, but only thought to myself "the show must go on." I held back my tears and my time ran off the stage and collapsed into a ball, and cried hard the end of crying that comes from the bottom of your stomach, the kind you never think you will be able to stop.

I ended up going to the office to cry it out. Why would everyone just leave the show I was practicing in the office nearly all day, wiping my tears and sobbing again, and asking myself why. The school secretary tried to talk to me and when I don't remember what she said I know that she eventually made me feel better. I dried my tears, took a deep breath, and went back to my classroom. I don't remember much else, but I remember looking back at the end of lines and the light of them on
