Nz Security Guard Training Manual:

Hearings Regarding Private Security Guards United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Human Resources,1993 Regulating the Security Industry Mahesh Nalla,Tim Prenzler,2020-01-24 It is widely acknowledged that the size of the security industry has increased in virtually every country around the world often eclipsing conventional police forces in personnel numbers and expenditures Security providers differ from law enforcement officers in many ways yet the nature of their crime reduction activities brings them into frequent contact with citizens drawing to the forefront issues of training professionalism and accountability Unlike police officers whose training and licensing standards are well established regulations for security providers are often minimalist or entirely absent This volume brings together research on regulatory regimes and strategies from around the globe covering both the large private security sector and the expanding area of public sector non police protective security It examines the nature and extent of licensing and monitoring and the minimum standards imposed on the industry by governments across the world The chapters in this book were originally published in the International Journal of Comparative and Applied Criminal Justice Navy

Manpower and the Armies of the British Empire in the Two World Wars Andrew L. Brown,Douglas E. Delaney,Mark Frost,2021-06-15 In the first and only examination of how the British Empire and Commonwealth sustained its soldiers before during and after both world wars a cast of leading military historians explores how the empire mobilized manpower to recruit workers care for veterans and transform factory workers and farmers into riflemen Raising armies is more than counting people putting them in uniform and assigning them to formations It demands efficient measures for recruitment registration and assignment It requires processes for transforming common people into soldiers and then producing officers staffs and commanders to lead them It necessitates balancing the needs of the armed services with industry and agriculture And often overlooked but illuminated incisively here raising armies relies on medical services for mending wounded soldiers and programs and pensions to look after them when demobilized Manpower and the Armies of the British Empire in the Two World Wars is a transnational look at how the empire did not always get these things right But through trial error analysis and introspection it levied the large armies needed to prosecute both wars Contributors Paul R Bartrop Charles Booth Jean Bou Daniel Byers Kent Fedorowich Jonathan Fennell Meghan Fitzpatrick Richard S Grayson Ian McGibbon Jessica Meyer Emma Newlands Kaushik Roy Roger Sarty Gary Sheffield Ian van der Waag Retail Crime, Security, and Loss Prevention Charles A.
