Politics and Governance in the UK Michael Moran, 2017-10-13 The third edition of this comprehensive and innovative textbook provides an invaluable narrative and insight into the ever changing landscape of British politics Updated to cover the 2015 General Election the Scottish independence referendum and changing relations with the European Union this extensively revised new edition sets out to provide students with a clear understanding of the core features of British politics and contemporary governance as well as an examination of the way in which the governing process is becoming increasingly multi level and multi agency Written in a concise and accessible style by one of the leading authors in the field this engaging text provides an illuminating framework that draws on the range of analytical issues and theoretical debates in the study of British politics Through Moran s unrivalled account of the way Britain is governed it is clear to see why this text continues to be essential reading for undergraduate students of British politics New to this Edition Continued discussion on the influence of EU membership on British politics A distinct emphasis on the rising importance of management in the system of government New 2017 update covers both the 2016 EU Referendum and the 2017 General Election as well as their repercussions for British politics

The Human Rights Covenants at 50 Daniel Moeckli,Helen Keller,Corina Heri,2018-06-06 Half a century ago on 16 December 1966 the UN General Assembly adopted the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights ICCPR and the International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights ICESCR While the adoption of the two UN human rights covenants was celebrated all over the world their 50th anniversary has received very little attention from the international community The present book marks this anniversary by taking stock of the first half century of the existence of what are probably the world s two most important human rights treaties It does so by reflecting on what the covenants have achieved or failed to achieve in the years that have passed by determining and comparing their current influence in the various regions of the world and by assessing their potential roles in the future The book contains papers that were presented during a symposium held in Zurich in 2016 which brought together experts and stakeholders from a range of disciplines and world regions Some fundamental issues that are addressed by the contributors are as old as the two covenants themselves They concern for example the division of human rights into first and second generation rights and the question of whether there should be one central monitoring body possibly a world court or more than just one However the contributors go beyond such questions that have been explored before they develop new answers to old questions and point to new challenges
