Schloss, Maureen A. Smith, 1998 Written for professionals in both general and special education this book is a complete description of applied behavior analysis and how it can be used with students displaying a range of excessive and deficit behaviors In addition to traditional topics covered in other applied behavior books this reference devotes substantial attention to preventing problems through anecdotal control social skill development and emotional learning Topics include increasing appropriate behavior through related personal characteristics increasing appropriate behavior through consequence control positive approaches to decreasing inappropriate behavior punishment graphing and more Behavior analysts teachers of any level Football and International Relations under Francoism, 1937-1975 Juan Antonio Simón, 2024-10-03 This book shines a light on the specific role football played in relation to the international relations of the Franco regime in mid twentieth century Spain In the 35 years of the dictatorship of General Francisco Franco sport specifically football as the main mass sport was often used as a tool at the service of the political and diplomatic interests of the regime and this volume analyses how Franco's government mainly through its Ministry of Foreign Affairs used football as part of its foreign policy strategy to promote the international image of the dictatorship Prestige international tours and friendly matches the European successes of Real Madrid CF and of the national team and the organisation of sporting events such as the 1964 European Nations Cup were used as instruments to strengthen the country's geopolitical interests This book responds to an important bibliographical gap that exists in relation to both research on Franco's regime and the study of the role that sport played under Franco and in comparison with other totalitarian regimes such as fascism and Nazism Football and International Relations under Francoism 1937 1975 is an ideal resource for academics in sports history football

 Ohio Conservation Bulletin ,1962 The Cowhide - A High School Football Tradition John David Fischer, 2005 Across the country are hundreds of high school football rivalries Each might lay claim that it is special in many ways In the heart of the great central valley of California is one such rivalry that is exceptional in its power over the people who have been part of it Two high schools Redwood and Mt Whitney began playing an annual football game against each other in 1955 The 50th game of this traditional rivalry was played in 2004 before 10 000 fans and a live television audience The two schools located only a few blocks from each other in Visalia California a city of 100 000 people have maintained this intense rivalry for over 50 years like very few schools have ever done The game is played before a packed stadium every year and the community claims it as the biggest event during the entire year Part 1 explores the history of the Cowhide game relating the early humble beginning when the original high school split into two schools The evolution of the game over 50 years is explored Using hundreds of questionnaires newspaper accounts and many interviews with those involved over the years the real meaning of the Cowhide tradition is explored and the reasons are brought out as to why this rivalry has not only endured but has actually increased in strength over the years Part 2 gives a detailed account of each of the 50 games including the teams records coming into the game the results of any subsequent playoffs and a complete roster of the teams for each year The article of the local newspaper about the game is included in each chapter At the end is an appendix of stats a listing of head and assistant coaches and other interesting items over the years Finally there is an index of all the players who played in the game and what years they played
