Dorothy U. Seyler, 1990 Contemplative Practices and Anti-Oppressive Pedagogies for Higher Education Greta Gaard, Bengü Ergüner-Tekinalp, 2022-05-15 This volume explores mindfulness and other contemplative approaches as strategic tools for cultivating anti oppressive pedagogies in higher education Research confirms that simply providing students with evidence and narratives of economic social and environmental injustices proves insufficient in developing awareness and eliciting responses of empathy solidarity and a desire to act for change From the environmental humanities to the environmental sciences legal studies psychology and counseling educators from a range of geographical and disciplinary standpoints describe their research based mindfulness pedagogies Chapters explore how to interrupt and interrogate oppression through contemplative teaching tools assignments and strategies that create greater awareness and facilitate deeper engagement with learning contents contexts and communities Providing a framework that facilitates awareness of the links between historic and current oppression self identity and trauma and creating a transformative learning experience through mindfulness this book is a must read for faculty and educators interested in intersections of mindfulness contemplative pedagogies and anti oppression Read, Reason, Write - book alone Dorothy Seyler, 2006-11-29 This comprehensive text presents clear instruction on critical reading and analysis argument and research techniques along with a collection of current incisive readings appropriate for practicing those techniques New features of the eighth edition include an expanded visual program featuring new chapter opening visuals and two full color inserts and a newly revised and updated reader Doctoral Proposal Writing Peter Samuels, 2024-10-02 Doctoral Proposal Writing is an essential guide for current and prospective international doctoral students wishing to apply and study for a PhD in the UK and other countries where courses are conducted in English The book supports students in choosing a suitable research topic and writing an effective proposal for investigating this topic across a range of forms of doctoral research across several disciplines with an emphasis on international students and students with English as an additional language The author offers guidance for prospective doctoral students in their applications to study for a doctorate in writing their initial proposals once they have been enrolled and if necessary in writing subsequent extended proposals The book also includes content on developing academic writing including paragraph writing argumentation doing literature reviews constructing methodologies and using evidence and referencing The book ends by covering giving a proposal presentation how to get the most out of supervisory relationships and thinking about the next steps in your research By giving insights into the doctoral journey and using real life examples of good quality doctoral proposals by international students this is an essential resource for anyone
