

The graphic features a dark blue background with a central light blue octagon. Inside the octagon, the text "5th Grade Promotion Ceremony" is written in a large, bold, black sans-serif font. The octagon is decorated with faint, semi-transparent illustrations of graduation caps, rolled diplomas, and stars. Outside the octagon, the background is also decorated with several red stars, pink numbers "1", and faint illustrations of graduation caps and diplomas. The overall theme is celebratory and academic.

The Ethics of Private Practice Jeffrey E. Barnett, Jeffrey Zimmerman, Steven Walfish, 2014 Mental health professionals in private practice strive for clinical and financial success Yet there are myriad ethical issues and dilemmas awaiting every practitioner that serve as challenges to being successful for even the most clinically competent and savvy business persons Some ethics issues are obvious while others are more subtle and can undermine the best intentions of practitioners who have not prepared for these challenges Graduate training programs in the mental health professions offer courses in ethics for their students but few offer practical training in the application of ethics to the business of practice A resource focusing specifically on these challenges has been sorely needed The Ethics of Private Practice helps mental health professionals understand the essential ethical issues related to many of the challenges of being in independent mental health practice Seasoned clinicians Barnett Zimmerman and Walfish offer readers astute insight to help them build a practice that is designed to minimize unintended ethical violations and reduce associated risks Each chapter focuses on a major aspect of the business of practice and incorporates relevant standards from the ethics codes of four mental health professions Topics addressed include planning one's private practice successfully running and managing one's practice documentation and record keeping dealing with third parties and protecting confidentiality managing practice finances and making financial decisions staff training and office policies advertising and the effective marketing of one's practice continuing professional development activities and the closing of a private practice The authors discuss important questions such as What do you do as a practitioner when your best referral source wants to become your client What is appropriate use of social media How should you respond when a managed care company denies authorization for treatment for a client that you know is in obvious need of further treatment Full of practical tips that can be readily implemented The Ethics of Private Practice is sure to be a handy go to resource for mental health clinicians in private practice
