

Narrative* essay outline Template

*Narrative is a term more commonly known as story. Narratives written for college or personal narratives, tell a story, usually to some point, to illustrate some truth or insight. Additionally, you can use it to help you structure your personal narrative, breaking it down into parts.

Introduction

a. The "Hook"

b. Start your paper with a statement about your story that catches the reader's attention, for example, a relevant quotation, question, fact, or definition.

c. Set the Scene

d. Provide the information the reader will need to understand the story: Who are the major characters? When and where is it taking place? It is a story about something that happened to you, the writer, or its fiction?

e. Thesis Statement

f. A narrative essay's thesis plays a slightly different role than that of an argument or expository essay. A narrative thesis can begin the events of the story: "It was sunny and warm out when I started down the path"; offer a moral or lesson learned: "I'll never hike alone again"; or identify a theme that connects the story to a universal experience: "Journeys bring both joy and hardship."

Body Paragraph

a. "Show, Don't Tell" Good storytelling includes details and descriptions that help the reader understand what the writer experienced. Think about using all five senses - not just the sense of sight - to add details about what you heard, saw, and felt during the event. For example, "My heart jumped as the dark shape of the brown grizzly lurched toward me out of the woods" provides more information about what the writer saw and felt than, "I saw a bear when I was hiking."

b. Supporting Evidence In a personal narrative, your experience acts as evidence that proves your thesis. The events of the story should demonstrate the lesson learned or the significance of the event to you.

c. Passage of Time Writing about the events of your experience using time chronologically, from beginning to end, is the most common and clear way to tell a story. Whether you choose to write chronologically or not, use transition words to indicate what happened first, next, and last. Some time transition words are next, finally, during, after, when, and later.

d. Transitions In a narrative essay, a new paragraph marks a change in a story's action or a move from action to reflection. Paragraphs should be connected. For example, the end of one paragraph might be: "I turned and ran, hoping the bear hadn't noticed me," and the start of the next might be: "There are many strategies for surviving an encounter with a bear: 'turn and run' is not one of them." The repetition of words connects the paragraphs. (What does the change in verb tense indicate?)

Conclusion

The Moral of the Story The conclusion of a narrative includes the closing action of the event. It should include some reflection or analysis of the event's significance to the writer. What lesson did you learn? How did it affect your life?
