Ready To Go On Enrichment Section 4 B:

Relevance Theory, Figuration, and Continuity in Pragmatics Agnieszka Piskorska, 2020-05-20 The chapters in this volume apply the methodology of relevance theory to develop accounts of various pragmatic phenomena which can be associated with the broadly conceived notion of style Some of them are devoted to central cases of figurative language metaphor metonymy puns irony while others deal with issues not readily associated with figurativeness from multimodal communicative stimuli through strong and weak implicatures to discourse functions of connectives particles and participles Other chapters shed light on the use of specific communicative styles ranging from hate speech to humour and humorous irony Using the relevance theoretic toolkit to analyse a spectrum of style related issues this volume makes a case for the model of pragmatics founded upon inference and continuity understood as the non existence of sharply delineated boundaries between classes of communicative phenomena

Switzerland and South Africa 1948-1994 Georg Kreis, 2007 While other states imposed economic sanctions on the apartheid regime of South Africa Swiss authorities long adhered to the position that South Africa is a state like any other Swiss big business corporations saw an attractive trade partner in South Africa in part they also profited from the boycotts of others Additionally some political forces sympathised openly with the regime in Pretoria Encouraged by the debate concerning Swiss policy and activity during the Second World War in 1997 the order was given to initiate a historical study of Swiss behaviour towards the apartheid regime Thus this report commissioned by the Swiss parliament and the Federal

Council and passed over to the Swiss National Science Foundation for execution came into being It unites the results of ten different research projects The report identifies the most important players involved in fashioning relations with South Africa it explains the legal situation in which these persons acted and it describes the thought processes that led to the actions The longest chapter deals with the attitudes and the areas of activity in the economic sector Here the trade with loans gold diamonds and war materials is paramount Other chapters are concerned with questions that are not primarily economic in nature such as political declarations the illusion of being in the role of a mediator contacts in sports and culture and after 1986 the beginning of support for the black majority
