Howes, 1972 Preaching to a Post-Everything World Zack Eswine, 2008-04-01 Zack Eswine starts this unique pastoral resource with a captivating question Could I now reach who I once was Challenging the idea that today's preachers must do away with biblical or expository preaching if they are to reach non-Christian people. Eswine offers a way of preaching that embraces biblical exposition in missional terms. Recognizing all of the different cultural situations in which the gospel must be preached, he gives preachers practical advice on preaching in a global context while remaining faithful to the Bible. Pastors, seminarians, and church and ministry leaders who speak in various contexts will welcome this fresh, thoughtful examination of bringing the Word to today's multi-ethnic, post-modern world.

A School Leader's Guide to Excellence Carmen Fariña, Laura Kotch, 2008. This book is an enormous gift. It has the power to change you and your school in ways that will bring vibrancy and excellence to your community. Lucy Calkins, Author of Units of Study for Primary Writing and Units of Study for Teaching Writing 3-5. What a pleasure to read a book on leadership that focuses on ideas so humane, clear, and wise that the reader wonders how we ever made the art of leadership so complicated and didactic. Ellin Oliver Keene, Coauthor of Mosaic of Thought, Second Edition. A veritable treasurehouse of practical help, inspiring support, and constructive challenge from two high-level leaders who have kept completely in touch with the classroom and never lose sight of the humanity of their own learning and leadership. Andy Hargreaves, Thomas More Brennan Chair in Education, Boston College. Carmen and Laura translate their soaring vision into a clear, easy-to-use, friendly guide any educator can apply. Bill Cirone, Superintendent of Santa Barbara County Office of Education. Is something no matter how big or small holding your school back? If so, turn to Carmen Farina and Laura Kotch. In New York City, they've transformed struggling schools into excellent schools and made good ones great. And in A School Leader's Guide to Excellence, they'll show you a direct, detailed road to improving schoolwide achievement. A School Leader's Guide to Excellence gets at what's really important when you're leading the way to change: gathering the energy of the school community for change, focusing that energy on problem-solving, assuring ownership and sustainability so that new practices last. Farina and Kotch present their ideas with step-by-step instructions, implementation and evaluation advice, artifacts of their own reform efforts, and all the modifiable forms and documents you'll need. Their strategies will help you form a doable vision of change, collect information, and create urgency; spark professional conversation and reinforce beliefs; motivate change through celebration; involve every staff member; secure parents' support; develop a culture of professional learning; make your job easier by nurturing teacher leaders; lead in the moment by planning in advance; energize your school for change; make reform happen and make it last; improve the performance and the lives of your students. And do it all with a realistic plan developed by people who've been there and know the way to success. Read A School Leader's Guide to Excellence and raise your school to new heights.
