

GR 10 Paper 1 Life Sciences scope November 2023 (10 November 2023)

Biological terms: Interphase, Anaphase, Metaphase, Telophase, Collenchyma, phloem, Sclerenchyma, Parenchyma, cuticula, Transpirations, stomata, neuron, organic compound, connective tissue, chromatin, chromosome, foramen magnum, axial skeleton, cranium
Chemistry of life	Cells
Difference between organic and inorganic compounds	Difference between animal cell and plant cell
Examples of organic and inorganic compounds	All the cell organelles and functions/rolls
Monomers of all organic compound	Describe the build of the nucleus, mitochondria, and chloroplast
Elements of all the organic compounds	Investigation: Osmose and diffusion (Look at the apparatus that we use and how to set up this Investigation)
Vitamins A, B, C, D, and E, and there deficiency diseases they can cause	Explain osmose and diffusion
Enzymes
- Lock and key model
- Function of enzymes
Influence of temperature and pH on enzyme action
Mitosis	Plant tissue
All the phases can identify and give reasons for your answers	Build and function of: Collenchyma, Sclerenchyma, Parenchyma, Phloem, Xylem and stomata
Product of Mitosis	Definition of tissue
Difference between telophase in plant cells and animal cells
Biological importance of Mitosis
Cancer: - Uncontrolled cell division and growth: Causes and treatment of cancer
	Function and build of: Stomata, Xylem, and root hair
	Adaptions of Xylem for movement of water upwards
Animal tissue	Plant organs
Name and identify all the animal tissues and where in the human body are they located.	The labels and functions of the dorsiventral leaf.
	Adaptions of the different parts of the leaf
Functions of all the animal tissues	Definition of an organ
Name all the connective tissues
Support and transport in plants	Support in animals
Labels of dicotyledonous stem and root	All the labels of the skeleton
Difference between a dicotyledons root and stem	Where do we find long bones in the skeleton
	Function of the skeleton
Investigation: The rate of transpirations (Potometer)
The effect of environmental factors on transpiration (Wind, Temperature and Light.)

Scope For Life Science Final Paper 2014:

Research Handbook on Intellectual Property and the Life Sciences Duncan Matthews, Herbert Zech, 2017-06-30 Intellectual property IP is a key component of the life sciences one of the most dynamic and innovative fields of technology today At the same time the relationship between IP and the life sciences raises new public policy dilemmas The Research Handbook on Intellectual Property and the Life Sciences comprises contributions by leading experts from academia and industry to provide in depth analyses of key topics including pharmaceuticals diagnostics and genes plant innovations stem cells the role of competition law and access to medicines The Research Handbook focuses on the relationship between IP and the life sciences in Europe and the United States complemented by country specific case studies on Australia Brazil China India Japan Kenya South Africa and Thailand to provide a truly international perspective Technological Innovation in Legacy Sectors William B. Bonvillian, Charles Weiss, 2015-08-18 The American economy faces two deep problems expanding innovation and raising the rate of quality job creation Both have roots in a neglected problem the resistance of Legacy economic sectors to innovation While the U S has focused its policies on breakthrough innovations to create new economic frontiers like information technology and biotechnology most of its economy is locked into Legacy sectors defended by technological economic political social paradigms that block competition from disruptive innovations that could challenge their models Americans like to build technology covered wagons and take them out west to open new innovation frontiers we don't head our wagons back east to bring innovation to our Legacy sectors By failing to do so the economy misses a major opportunity for innovation which is the bedrock of U S competitiveness and its standard of living Technological Innovation in Legacy Sectors uses a new unifying conceptual framework to identify the shared features underlying structural obstacles to innovation in major Legacy sectors energy air and auto transport the electric power grid buildings manufacturing agriculture health care delivery and higher education and develops approaches to understand and transform them It finds both strengths and obstacles to innovation in the national innovation environments a new concept that combines the innovation system and the broader innovation context for a group of Asian and European economies Manufacturing is a major Legacy sector that presents a particular challenge because it is a critical stage in the innovation process By increasingly offshoring production the U S is losing important parts of its innovation capacity Innovate here produce here where the U S took all the gains of its strong innovation system at every stage is being replaced by innovate here produce there which threatens to lead to produce there innovate there To bring innovation to Legacy sectors authors William Bonvillian and Charles Weiss recommend that policymakers focus on all stages of innovation from research through implementation They should fill institutional gaps in the innovation system and take measures to address structural obstacles to needed disruptive innovations In the specific case of advanced manufacturing the production ecosystem can be recreated to reverse jobless innovation and add manufacturing led innovation to the U S's still strong research oriented innovation system Behavioral Science & Policy: Volume 2, Issue 1

Craig Fox, Sim B. Sitkin, 2016-11-22 The success of nearly all public and private sector policies hinges on the behavior of individuals, groups, and organizations. Today such behaviors are better understood than ever thanks to a growing body of practical behavioral science research. However, policymakers often are unaware of behavioral science findings that may help them craft and execute more effective and efficient policies. The pages of this new journal will become a meeting ground, a place where scientists and non-scientists can encounter clearly described behavioral research that can be put into action. By design, the scope of BSP is broad, with topics spanning health care, financial decisionmaking, energy, and the environment, education, and culture, justice, and ethics, and work place practices. Contributions will be made by researchers with expertise in psychology, sociology, law, behavioral economics, organization science, decision science, and marketing. The journal is a key offering of the Behavioral Science Policy Association in partnership with the Brookings Institution. The mission of BSPA is to foster dialog between social scientists, policymakers, and other practitioners in order to promote the application of rigorous empirical behavioral science in ways that serve the public interest. BSPA does not advance a particular agenda or political perspective. Suk, Kathleen M. Vogel, Amanda Jane Ozin, 2015-06-04 In September 2011, scientists announced new experimental findings that would not only threaten the conduct and publication of influenza research but would have significant policy and intelligence implications. The findings presented a modified variant of the H5N1 avian influenza virus, hereafter referred to as the H5N1 virus, that was transmissible via aerosol between ferrets. These results suggested a worrisome possibility: the existence of a new airborne and highly lethal H5N1 virus that could cause a deadly global pandemic. In response, a series of international discussions on the nature of dual use life science arose. These discussions addressed the complex social, technical, political, security, and ethical issues related to dual use research. This Research Topic will be devoted to contributions that explore this matrix of issues from a variety of case study and international perspectives. Technical questions and answers for job interview

Offshore Oil & Gas Platforms Petrogav International Oil & Gas Training Center,2020-06-30 The job interview is probably the most important step you will take in your job search journey Because it s always important to be prepared to respond effectively to the questions that employers typically ask at a job interview Petrogav International has prepared this eBooks that will help you to get a job in oil and gas industry Since these questions are so common hiring managers will expect you to be able to answer them smoothly and without hesitation This eBook contains 273 questions and answers for job interview and as a BONUS web addresses to 100 video movies for a better understanding of the technological process This course covers aspects like HSE Process Mechanical Electrical and Instrumentation Control that will enable you to apply for any position in the Oil and Gas Industry Bioregenerative Life-Support Systems for Crewed Missions to the Moon and Mars Cyprien

Verseux,Jean-Pierre Paul de Vera,Natalie Leys,Lucie Poulet,2022-10-20 Quality of Life in Urban Landscapes Roberta Cocci Grifoni,Rosalba D'Onofrio,Massimo Sargolini,2017-12-14 This volume introduces an innovative tool for the development of sustainable cities and the promotion of the quality of life of city inhabitants It presents a decision support system to orient public administrations in identifying development scenarios for sustainable urban and territorial transformations The authors have split the volume into five parts which respectively describe the theoretical basis of the book the policies in question and indicators that influence them the decision support system that connects indicators to policies the case study of Ancona Italy and potential future directions for this work This volume is based on transdisciplinary research completed in May 2016 that involved about 40 researchers at The University of Camerino Italy and other European universities With purchase of this book readers will also have access to Electronic Supplementary Material that contains a database with groups of indicators of assessment of urban quality of life and a toolkit containing the data processing system and management information system used in the book s case study Rethinking the Concept of Law of Nature Yemima

Ben-Menahem,2022-06-13 This book subjects the traditional concept of law of nature to critical examination There are two kinds of reasons that invite this reexamination one deriving from philosophical concerns over the traditional concept the other motivated by theoretical and practical changes in science One of the philosophical worries is that the idiom of law of nature especially when combined with the notion of laws governing individual events and processes is no longer as intelligible as it used to be in the theistic context in which the formulation of laws became central to science The traditional concept is also challenged in various ways by contemporary scientific theories such as quantum mechanics chaos theory and the general theory of relativity It is no longer clear that there are any universal laws laws do not always guarantee predictability and the border between physical and mathematical considerations is constantly shifting The most difficult challenge perhaps is to come up with a scientific explanation of the origin of laws Wrestling with these intriguing problems the papers in this volume broaden both our understanding of the natural order and our desiderata of scientific explanation

Science, the State and the City Geoffrey Owen,Michael M. Hopkins,2016 The book is about the link between science and business how discoveries made in academic laboratories are taken up by venture capitalists and investors and converted into products which if they are successful provide treatments for disease and may generate substantial returns for investors

Advanced Computing and Systems for Security: Volume 14 Rituparna Chaki, Nabendu Chaki, Agostino Cortesi, Khalid Saeed, 2021-09-21 This book features extended versions of selected papers that were presented and discussed at the 8th International Doctoral Symposium on Applied Computation and Security Systems ACSS 2021 held in Kolkata India on April 9 10 2021 Organized by the Departments of Computer Science Engineering and A K Choudhury School of Information Technology at the University of Calcutta the symposium's international partners were Ca Foscari University of Venice Italy and Bialystok University of Technology Poland The topics covered include biometrics image processing pattern recognition algorithms cloud computing wireless sensor networks and security systems reflecting the various symposium sessions
