The Fitness of Information Chaomei Chen,2014-07-30 Theories and practices to assess critical information in a complex adaptive system Organized for readers to follow along easily The Fitness of Information Quantitative Assessments of Critical Evidence provides a structured outline of the key challenges in assessing crucial information in a complex adaptive system Illustrating a variety of computational and explanatory challenges the book demonstrates principles and practical implications of exploring and assessing the fitness of information in an extensible framework of adaptive landscapes The book s first three chapters introduce fundamental principles and practical examples in connection to the nature of aesthetics mental models and the subjectivity of evidence In particular the underlying question is how these issues can be addressed quantitatively not only computationally but also explanatorily The next chapter illustrates how one can reduce the level of complexity in understanding the structure and dynamics of scientific knowledge through the design and use of the CiteSpace system for visualizing and analyzing emerging trends in scientific literature The following two chapters explain the concepts of structural variation and the fitness of information in a framework that builds on the idea of fitness landscape originally introduced to study population evolution The final chapter presents a dual map overlay technique and demonstrates how it supports a variety of analytic tasks for a new type of portfolio analysis The Fitness of Information Quantitative Assessments of Critical Evidence also features In depth case studies and examples that characterize far reaching concepts illustrate underlying principles and demonstrate profound challenges and complexities at various levels of analytic reasoning Wide ranging topics that underline the common theme from the subjectivity of evidence in criminal trials to detecting early signs of critical transitions and mechanisms behind radical patents An extensible and unifying framework for visual analytics by transforming analytic reasoning tasks to the assessment of critical evidence The Fitness of Information Quantitative Assessments of Critical Evidence is a suitable reference for researchers analysts and practitioners who are interested in analyzing evidence and making decisions with incomplete uncertain and even conflicting information The book is also an excellent textbook for upper undergraduate and graduate level courses on visual analytics information visualization and business analytics and decision support systems

Toxic Empathy Allie Beth Stuckey, 2024-10-15 A sharp Christian voice makes a bold argument when politics are driven by empathy rather than truth innocent people pay the price We are told that empathy is the highest virtue the key to being a good person Is that true Or has empathy like so many other words of our day tolerance justice acceptance been hijacked by bad actors who exploit compassion for their own political ends In Toxic Empathy Allie Beth Stuckey argues that empathy has become a tool of manipulation by left wing activists who bully people into believing that they must adopt progressive positions to be loving She explores the five most heated issues through which toxic empathy is deployed abortion gender sexuality immigration and social justice Progressives use catchy mantras to present their perspective as empathetic like abortion is healthcare love is love or no human being is illegal but in each case they ignore the other side of the moral equation For example abortion is presented as compassionate for the woman but what about the human life the procedure kills This book isn't about killing empathy it's about submitting our empathy to God's definitions of love goodness and justice Stuckey exposes the logical pitfalls and moral consequences of toxic empathy equipping Christians with research backed Biblical truths to dismantle the progressive lies that have permeated our culture and our church

The Choice for Banking Union Elena Ríos Camacho, 2021-12-30 This book explains why the European Union EU Member States in response to the euro crisis agreed to establish banking union despite previous objections and why they chose its hybrid institutional design Analysing its establishment from 2012 to 2020 the book offers a comprehensive view of the preferences of the Member States and EU institutions as well as of the negotiation dynamics and latest developments in the three pillars of banking union namely the Single Supervisory Mechanism the Single Resolution Mechanism and the common backstop and the European deposit insurance scheme Furthermore empirically the book looks beyond the usual focus of the northern and southern coalition of states to underline the influence of powerful smaller Member States in the intergovernmental bargaining process Adopting a range of theoretical perspectives it questions the solidity of the northern versus southern camps and reveals distinctive and particular positioning from individual countries during the process This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of European financial market regulation European economic governance EU institutions European integration theory and EU politics more broadly Perilous Medicine Leonard Rubenstein, 2021-09-21 Pervasive violence against hospitals patients doctors and other health workers has become a horrifically common feature of modern war These relentless attacks destroy lives and the capacity of health systems to tend to those in need Inaction to stop this violence undermines long standing values and laws designed to ensure that sick and wounded people receive care Leonard Rubenstein a human rights lawyer who has investigated atrocities against health workers around the world offers a gripping and powerful account of the dangers health workers face during conflict and the legal political and moral struggle to protect them In a dozen case studies he shares the stories of people who have been attacked while seeking to serve patients under dire circumstances including health workers hiding from soldiers in the forests of eastern Myanmar as they seek to serve oppressed ethnic communities surgeons in Syria operating as their hospitals are bombed and Afghan hospital staff attacked by the Taliban as well as government and foreign forces Rubenstein reveals how political and military leaders evade their legal obligations to protect health care in war punish doctors and nurses for adhering to their responsibilities to provide care to all in need and fail to hold perpetrators to account Bringing together extensive research firsthand experience and compelling personal stories Perilous Medicine also offers a path forward detailing the lessons the international community needs to learn to protect people already suffering in war and those on the front lines of health care in conflict ridden places around the world Examining Challenges and Wasted

Taxpayer Dollars in Modernizing Border Security IT Systems United States. Congress. House. Committee on Homeland Security. Subcommittee on Oversight and Management Efficiency, 2014 New Perspectives on Using Accreditation to Improve Higher Education Hysa, Eglantina, Foote, Russell, 2022-06-24

Recently the priorities of higher education have adjusted where before the focus was primarily on the financial side of education institutions now consider people to be their main source of value and education to be much more than the production and dissemination of knowledge Due to this a gap has been created between decades of emphasis on financing and the undermining of the qualitative requirements of education New Perspectives on Using Accreditation to Improve Higher Education outlines key issues that must be addressed if accreditation agencies globally are to achieve their primary objective of ensuring that universities and the degree programs they offer are of even greater quality than they are at present Covering topics such as leadership assessment and sustainability this reference work is ideal for principals policymakers higher education staff researchers scholars academicians practitioners instructors and students Federal Register, 2014 Studies in Intelligence, 2013

EMU Integration and Member States' Constitutions Stefan Griller, Elisabeth Lentsch, 2021-02-25 In this book legal scholars from the EU Member States with the addition of the UK analyse the development of the EU Member States attitudes to economic fiscal and monetary integration since the Treaty of Maastricht The Eurozone crisis corroborated the warnings of economists that weak economic policy coordination and loose fiscal oversight would be insufficient to stabilise the monetary union The country studies in this book investigate the legal and in particular the constitutional pre conditions for deeper fiscal and monetary integration that influenced the past and might impact on the future positions in the now 27 EU Member States The individual country studies address the following issues Main characteristics of the national constitutional system and constitutional culture Constitutional foundations of Economic and Monetary Union EMU membership and related instruments Constitutional obstacles to EMU integration Constitutional rules and or practice on implementing EMU related law and The resulting relationship between EMU related law and national law Offering a comprehensive and detailed assessment of the legal and constitutional developments concerning the Economic and Monetary Union since the Treaty of Maastricht this book provides not only a study of legal EMU related measures and reforms at the EU level but most importantly sheds light on their perception in the EU Member States

Inter-Regional Place Branding Sebastian Zenker, Björn P. Jacobsen, 2015-04-01 This book examines and clarifies key aspects of regional branding with the special focus of inter regional brands Today regions are in strong competition for companies tourists and most of all talent In order to differentiate one region from another regional developers politicians and planners increasingly focus on establishing the region as a brand This is by no means easy since places are complex systems of geographical abstractions in which each place is understood in relation and contrast to other geographical entities In doing so regions not only differentiate but also cooperate within one country or between countries building so called Inter Regional Brands with an even higher degree of complexity Accordingly this volume provides a theoretically well informed but practically oriented overview of this phenomenon including numerous cases and best practices As such it will strongly appeal to both academics and practitioners in the field
