The Division of Competences between the EU and the Member States Sacha Garben,Inge Govaere,2017-10-05 The issue of competence division is of fundamental importance as it reflects the power bargain struck between the Member States and their Union determining the limits of the authority of the EU as well as the limits of the authority of the Member States It defines the nature of the EU as a polity as well as the identity of the Member States After over six years since the entry into force of the Lisbon Treaty it is high time to take stock of whether the reforms that were adopted to make the Union s system of division of competences between the EU Member States clearer more coherent and better at containing European integration have been successful This book asks whether the competence problem has finally been solved Given the fundamental importance of this question this publication will be of interest to a wide audience from constitutional and substantive EU law scholars to practitioners in the EU institutions and EU legal practice more generally

Handbook of Agri-Food Law in China, Germany, European Union Ines Härtel, 2018-01-09 This book offers a new and differentiated overview of Agri Food Law against the background of national and global integration of markets and compares for the first time important aspects of the agricultural environmental and food law of China and Germany, the European Union. In addition to the basics, it discusses a wide range of issues such as the respective legal regulatory structures for food security, food safety, geographical indications of origin, climate protection, fertilizers, plant protection products, genetic engineering, water protection, soil protection, land resources and organic farming. In addition, it addresses key environmental impacts and developments in order to create integrated value chains. The increasing fusion of upstream and downstream areas is becoming apparent from primary production to the refinement and trade up level and even to consumption. Agri Food Law is now productively taking these important developments into account with regard to the aforementioned countries.

De Minimis Aid Under EU Law Ricardo Pedro, 2022-09-13 This book deals with de minimis aid and demonstrates that it is both a sui generis legal concept in the context of State aid and subject to a complex regime. On the one hand, it is a sui generis concept in that i) it seeks to strike a balance between simplifying the grant process and not distorting competition in the internal market while being a tool that Member States are able to apply easily and ii) it is subject to ex ante control by Member States. On the other hand, it is complex in that i) it requires determining the sectors of economic activity it applies to, ii) a few notions specific to the regime are not easy to understand such as the notion of single undertaking, and iii) it requires combining four de minimis regimes: one general and three special, which in turn requires reconciling those regimes with each other and with other aid, not least because of the cumulation rules. Lastly, these particularities were also reflected in the recovery regime for unlawful de minimis aid. Aimed at lawyers, legal consultants and those working in undertakings as well as students, the book provides a comprehensive overview of the current de minimis regimes and is clear and complete while also proposing a fresh view on the area of EU State aid law Ricardo Pedro is Researcher at the Centro de Investiga o de Direito P blico CIDP Universidade de Lisboa Portugal

Terminal evaluation of the areas beyond national jurisdiction (ABNJ) Tuna project, part of the "Global sustainable fisheries management and biodiversity conservation in ABNJ" Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations ,2020-09-01 The marine areas beyond national jurisdiction ABNJ comprise 40 percent of the earth s surface covering 64 percent of the surface of the ocean and 95 percent of its volume The Common Oceans ABNJ Programme 2014 2019 was implemented by FAO as a concerted effort to bring stakeholders to work together to manage and conserve the world s common oceans The ABNJ Tuna project one component of the Common Oceans ABNJ Programme promoted important transformational changes in the management practices of tuna fisheries improving their sustainability strengthening Marine Stewardship Council capabilities of tuna regional fisheries management organizations t RFMOs and their members and significantly reducing their impact on biodiversity The project generated knowledge but lacked a structured mechanism and strategy to harvest and disseminate it Similarly to the programme level evaluation report the programmatic approach component the partnership framework as well as how to foster synergies among projects and capitalization of knowledge management should be strengthened

Agricultural and Agribusiness Law Theodore A. Feitshans,2015-10-05 This introductory textbook provides an overview of the concepts necessary for an understanding of agricultural and agribusiness law The text will help students of land based industries with little or no legal background to appreciate and identify issues which may require referral or consultation with legal counsel Each concise chapter addresses a different legal issue that those employed in agriculture and agribusiness may face and both federal law and representative examples of state law are included In addition to traditional topics such as contracts property law and estate planning the book also covers more contemporary issues such as organic certification animal law genetically engineered crops and food safety Agricultural law extends beyond those directly engaged in farming to those in agribusiness who provide services and inputs to farmers buy farmers products store or transport products manufacture food products and serve as intermediaries between farmers and consumers The book will therefore also serve as a reference and a guide for those employed in agribusiness as well as agriculture

International Law Reports: Volume 181 Christopher Greenwood,Karen Lee,2019-06-06 Decisions of international courts and arbitrators as well as judgments of national courts are fundamental elements of modern public international law The International Law Reports is the only publication in the world wholly devoted to the regular and systematic reporting in English of such decisions It is therefore an absolutely essential work of reference Volume 181 is devoted to the 2018 judgment of the Grand Chamber of the Court of Justice of the European Union in Slovak Republic v Achmea BV the 2018 judgment of the Grand Chamber of Court of Justice of the European Union in R Western Sahara Campaign UK v Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs and Another and the translated judgment of the Norwegian Borgarting Court of Appeal in Huseini v Ministry of Justice and Public Security People's Republic of China International Monetary Fund. Asia and Pacific Dept, 2015-08-14 This 2015 Article IV Consultation highlights that China is transitioning to a new normal with slower yet safer more sustainable growth Growth in 2014 fell to 7.4 percent and in 2015 is forecast to slow further to 6.8 percent on the back of slower investment especially in real estate The labor market has remained resilient despite slower growth as the economy pivots toward the more labor intensive service sector Considerable progress has been made in external rebalancing The current account surplus fell to 2.1 percent in 2014 from the peak of about 10 percent in 2007 and the renminbi has appreciated by about 10 percent since 2014 in real effective terms Further progress has also been made on domestic rebalancing

General Principles of Law Stefan Vogenauer, Stephen Weatherill, 2017-06-15 Examining general principles of law provides one of the most instructive examples of the intersection between EU law and comparative law This collection draws on the expertise of high profile and distinguished scholars to provide a critical examination of this interaction It shows how general principles of EU law need to be responsive to national laws In addition it is clear that the laws of the Member States have no choice but to be responsive to the general principles which are developed through EU law Viewed through the perspective of proportionality legal certainty and fundamental rights the dynamic relationship between the ingenuity of the Court of Justice the legislative process and the process of Treaty revision is comprehensively illustrated
