Endtimes? Daniel R. Schwarz, 2014-01-02 A groundbreaking study of ten difficult years in the life of America s most important newspaper From false stories about weapons of mass destruction in Iraq to growing competition from online and twenty four hour cable news the first decade of the twenty first century was not particularly kind to the New York Times In this groundbreaking study of the recent life and times of America s most important newspaper Daniel R Schwarz describes the transformation of the Times as it has

confronted not only its various scandals and embarrassments but also the rapid rise of the Internet and blogosphere the ensuing decline in circulation and print advertising and the change in what readers want and how they want to get it Drawing on more than forty one on one interviews with past and present editors including every living executive editor senior figures on the business and financial side and publisher Arthur Sulzberger Jr Schwarz discusses virtually every aspect of the contemporary Times from columnists to cultural coverage He explains how in response to continuous online updating and twenty four hour all news radio and television the Times has become much more like a daily magazine than a traditional newspaper with increased analysis as opposed to reporting of the news as well as value added features on health travel investing and food After carefully tracing the rise of the Times s website Schwarz asks whether the Times can survive as a print newspaper whether it can find a business model to support its vast print and online newsgathering operation and whether the Sulzberger family can survive as controlling owners He also asks whether the Times in its desperate effort to survive has abandoned its quality standards by publishing what he calls Timeslite and Timestrash Writing as a skeptical outsider and devoted lifelong reader Schwarz concludes that the Times is the worst newspaper in the world except for all the others Endtimes is a must read for Times readers as well as anyone interested in the radical change in print and broadcast media in the rapidly evolving Internet Age A balanced grappling with big issues and tumultuous changes in journalism and at The Times between 1999 and 2009 CHOICE Fascinating Schwarz raises many questions about the future of printed newspapers and about how Americans will stay informed about news Charleston Gazette Mail Endtimes is a product of brain and heart passion for its subject yes but also clear eyed critique of that subject s strengths and weaknesses Huntsville Times Schwarz is diligent in his research and his interviews He puts the Times on the couch and gives us a very thorough psychoanalysis Washington Independent Review of Books Struggling to maintain its journalistic preeminence in a world of accelerating change the New York Times has often stumbled but not yet fallen Scrupulously researched judiciously argued and accessibly written Endtimes provides a sympathetically critical account of the Times s strengths and weaknesses as it responds to the economic technological cultural and political challenges of our day No one alarmed by the threatened survival of quality journalism can afford to ignore this trenchant book Martin Jay author of The Virtues of Mendacity On Lying in Politics Daniel Schwarz s lucid well researched and passionate book reminded me of the saying that the best criticism comes from admirers who are willing to tell us our faults Benefiting from his own extensive interviews with key players in the Times s story including Max Frankel Arthur Sulzberger Jr and Howell Raines Schwarz offers a complex judicious history of a prominent American cultural institution as it responds to a period of crises and turmoil in print journalism Pulling no punches Schwarz laments the current version of the paper s fluff lack of gatekeeping and news judgment and failure to stand up to government At the same time he appreciates how the Times remains after more than a century a preeminent source of information This is a lover s quarrel at its best Daniel Morris Purdue University Dan Schwarz

is a knowing reader and a master teacher Endtimes shows that he is a great student of journalism as well He takes us on a roller coaster ride from the era of the New York Times s cultural ascendancy to the current financial crisis over its very existence And he looks into the Times s future too Everyone who cares about the news in America should read this book Barry Strauss author of The Spartacus War Dan Schwarz writes with terrific energy about an important subject the threat posed by today s flood of information to the integrity and even the existence of what is arguably the world s most influential newspaper Not every reader will agree with his criticisms of the paper s leadership or his prescriptions for its survival But every reader will be deeply informed and sharply challenged by his well documented narrative and his provocative argument

No Time To Think Howard Rosenberg, Charles S. Feldman, 2008-10-01 An eviscerating look at the state of journalism in the age of the 24 hour news cycle by a Pulitzer Prize winning television critic and a veteran news correspondent No Time To Think focuses on the insidious and increasing portion of the news media that due to the dangerously extreme speed at which it is produced is only half thought out half true and lazily repeated from anonymous sources interested in selling opinion and wild speculation as news These news item can easily gain exposure today assuming a life of their own while making a mockery of journalism and creating casualties of cool deliberation and thoughtful discourse Much of it is picked up gratuitously and given resonance online or through CNN Fox News MSNBC and other networks which must in this age of the 24 hour news cycle feed the beast In dissecting this frantic news blur No Time to Think breaks down a number of speed driven blunders from the insider perspective of Charles Feldman who spent 20 years as a CNN correspondent as well as the outsider perspective of Howard Rosenberg who covered the coverage for 25 years as TV critic for The Los Angeles Times No Time to Think demonstrates how today s media blitz scrambles the public s perspective in ways that potentially shape how we think act and react as a global society The end result effects not only the media and the public but also the government leaders we trust to make carefully considered decisions on our behalf Featuring interviews ranging from former NBC News anchor Tom Brokaw to internet doyenne Arianna Huffington to PBS stalwart Jim Lehrer to CNN chief Jonathan Klein to a host of former presidential press secretaries and other keen eyed media watchers this incisive work measures lasting fallout from the 24 hour news cycle beginning in 1980 with the arrival of CNN right up to the present
