History as Literature in Byzantium Ruth Macrides,2016-12-05 Although perceived since the sixteenth century as the most impressive literary achievement of Byzantine culture historical writing nevertheless remains little studied as literature Historical texts are still read first and foremost for nuggets of information as main sources for the reconstruction of the events of Byzantine history Whatever can be called literary in these works has been considered as external and detachable from the facts The classical tradition inherited by Byzantine writers the features that Byzantine authors imitated and absorbed are regarded as standing in the way of understanding the true meaning of the text and furthermore of contaminating the reliability of the history Chronicles whose language and style are anything but classicizing have been held in low esteem for they are seen as providing a mere chronological exposition of events This book presents a set of articles by an international cast of contributors deriving from papers delivered at the 40th annual Spring Symposium of Byzantine Studies They are concerned with historical and visual narratives that date from the sixth to the fourteenth century and aim to show that literary analyses and the study of pictorial devices far from being tangential to the study of historical texts are preliminary to their further study exposing the deeper structures and purposes of these texts A Walk in the Garden of

My Spirit Lucian A. Tower, 2013-05-14 I began writing song lyric then came poetry and short stories some 40 years ago when I was 10 years old During the sixties in high school I had the privilege of meeting The Poet Laureate of the United States Mr Robert Frost He spoke with me discussing my poetry and my ideas He told me to keep writing and reading and as I continued I would learn so much more and eventually become a published poet I have continued writing lyrics poetry and short stories I am now 64 years old and I am published I have always told other poets and writers to keep on writing and learning about the many different styles of the written arts The way I see writing poetry is a likeness to a photograph of a moment a dream a place and a thing a memory good or not so good Life comes at us in many different ways sometimes in many different ways at once Its the situations that arise the masks some people wear the way they talk and rub shoulders with everybody These things make up the poetry I write When you sit down and look at life youll find its much bigger than just us This is poetry lyric writing short stories from the imagination journalism and actually all the arts they are great love affairs with life I have found all things good in the written arts even when Im turned down by an editor Its all learning and enjoying what you do So choose a photograph of a moment a dream or a situation and then write about it Create a picture with words of description I live a simple life as a Disabled Veteran of the U S M C and the Vietnam War However I am simply who I am and I dont try to say Im someone else I am a human being who loves the arts My message to you all whom read this is KEEP ON WRITING KEEP ON KEEPING ON
