Documents of Massachusetts Massachusetts, 1921 We Own This City Justin Fenton, 2022-03-15 NEW YORK TIMES EDITORS CHOICE The astonishing true story of one of the most startling police corruption scandals in a generation The New York Times from the Pulitzer Prize nominated reporter who exposed a gang of criminal cops and their yearslong plunder of an American city NOW AN HBO SERIES FROM THE WIRE CREATOR DAVID SIMON AND GEORGE PELECANOS A work of journalism that not only chronicles the rise and fall of a corrupt police unit but can stand as the inevitable coda to the half century of disaster that is the American drug war David Simon Baltimore 2015 Riots are erupting across the city as citizens demand justice for Freddie Gray a twenty five year old Black man who has died under suspicious circumstances while in police custody Drug and violent crime are surging and Baltimore will reach its highest murder count in more than two decades 342 homicides in a single year in a city of just 600 000 people Facing pressure from the mayor's office as well as a federal investigation of the department over Gray's death Baltimore police commanders turn to a rank and file hero Sergeant Wayne Jenkins and his elite plainclothes unit the Gun Trace Task Force to help get guns and drugs off the street But behind these new efforts a criminal conspiracy of unprecedented scale was unfolding within the police department Entrusted with fixing the city's drug and gun crisis Jenkins chose to exploit it instead With other members of the empowered Gun Trace Task Force Jenkins stole from Baltimore's citizens skimming from drug busts pocketing thousands in cash found in private homes and planting fake evidence to throw Internal Affairs off their scent Their brazen crime spree would go unchecked for years

The results were countless wrongful convictions the death of an innocent civilian and the mysterious death of one cop who was shot in the head killed just a day before he was scheduled to testify against the unit In this urgent book award winning investigative journalist Justin Fenton distills hundreds of interviews thousands of court documents and countless hours of video footage to present the definitive account of the entire scandal The result is an astounding riveting feat of reportage about a rogue police unit the city they held hostage and the ongoing struggle between American law enforcement and the communities they are charged to serve

Policy Issues in Employment Testing Linda C. Wing, Bernard R. Gifford, 2012-12-06 Linda C Wing and Bernard R Gifford How should a society committed to the ideas of individual merit equal opportunity and the free marketplace allocate scarce educational and employment opportunities How can that society draw distinctions fairly and justifiably among people competing against each other for the same opportunity These are among the central questions of a democracy How a society answers them reveals a great deal about its values and its priorities and determines a great deal about its future course In recent decades we have placed the standardized pencil and paper test at the center of these fundamental questions about the nature of opportunity allocation in American life In more and more areas of our lives schools employment the military we rely upon the standardized test to rank or classify people and to assure ourselves that we have done so fairly The papers gathered here were prepared at the invitation of the National Commission on Testing and Public Policy The editors of this volume were involved in the commission from its inception in 1987 until shortly after the publication of its major public report in 1990 Bernard Gifford as Chair and Linda Wing as Associate Director
