Secondary Solutions The Hunger Games Literature Guide:

The Hunger Games by Suzanne Collins Mary Pat Mahoney, 2011 Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano, 2015-09-28 If you're a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children's literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K-12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children's literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials Supporting Reading in Grades 6-12 Sybil M. Farwell, Nancy L. Teger, 2012-06-11 This book presents a curricular framework for students grades 6-12 that school librarians and teachers can use collaboratively to enhance reading skill development promote literature appreciation and motivate young people to incorporate reading into their lives beyond the required schoolwork Supporting Reading Grades 6-12 A Guide addresses head on the disturbing trend of declining leisure reading among students and demonstrates how school librarians can contribute to the development of lifelong reading habits as well as improve students motivation and test scores The book provides a comprehensive framework for achieving this the READS curriculum which stands for Read as a personal activity Explore characteristics history and awards of creative works Analyze structure and aesthetic features of creative works Develop a literary based product and Score reading progress Each of these five components is explained thoroughly describing how school librarians can encourage students to read as individuals in groups and as school communities support classroom teachers instruction and connect students to today's constantly evolving technologies Used in combination with an inquiry information skills model the READS curriculum enables school librarians to deliver a dynamic balanced library program that addresses AASL's Standards for the 21st Century Learner The SEL Solution Jonathan C.
