Prison Privatisation Report International:

Capitalist Punishment Andrew Coyle, Allison Campbell, Rodney Neufeld, 2003 Foreword Sir Nigel Rodley Capitalist Punishment Andrew Coyle, Allison Campbell, Rodney Neufeld, 2003-04 Prison privatization is rapidly spreading in many Western countries as governments seek to manage burgeoning prison populations within the constraints of a neo liberal political agenda But how is public well being served when prisons are run for profit This volume discusses privatization in its historical and ideological context and in relation to United Nations standards and rules It examines the adverse effects of private prisons on physical and sexual abuse health care education training and rehabilitation as corporations seek to maximize profits and describes the impact of cost cutting on prison staff paying special attention to the effect on women children and minorities It also offers a glimpse into the transnational spread of privatized incarceration as developing nations bound by IMF restrictions are forced into the hands of transnational corporations to the detriment of local alternatives

Penal Systems Michael Cavadino, James Dignan, 2005-10-26 Cavadino and Dignan's Penal Systems A Comparative Approach looks across national boundaries to see how penal systems differ and why It is hands down the most comprehensive and up to date book on the subject and should become a staple textbook for use in law and social science courses on comparative penal policy and practice Michael H Tonry University of Minnesota This book is an important addition to the literature on punishment It is a highly readable and very well researched overview of some of the major differences in punitiveness between neo liberal corporatist and social democratic countries This is a major contribution to comparative penology by two of the leading authors in this field Alison Liebling Director of the Prisons Research Centre UK A major and seminal work David Downes Professor Emeritus at the London School of Economics Penal Systems A Comparative Approach is a comprehensive and original introduction to the comparative study of punishment Analysing twelve countries Cavadino and Dignan offer an integrated and theoretically rigorous approach to comparative penology They draw upon material provided by a team of eminent penologists to produce an important and highly readable contribution to scholarship in this area Early chapters introduce the reader to comparative penology set out the theoretical framework and consider whether there is currently a global penal crisis Each country is then discussed in turn Chapters on comparative youth justice and the privatization of prisons follow Comparisons between countries are drawn within each chapter giving the reader a synoptic and truly comparative vision of penalty in different jurisdictions Invisible Punishment Meda

Chesney-Lind, Marc Mauer, 2011-05-10 In a series of newly commissioned essays from the leading scholars and advocates in criminal justice Invisible Punishment explores for the first time the far reaching consequences of our current criminal justice policies Adopted as part of get tough on crime attitudes that prevailed in the 1980s and 90s a range of strategies from three strikes and a war on drugs to mandatory sentencing and prison privatization have resulted in the mass incarceration of American citizens and have had enormous effects not just on wrong doers but on their families and the communities they come from This book looks at the consequences of these policies twenty years later Prison Privatization Byron Eugene Price, John Charles Morris, 2012-09-20 This book examines the current state of both the theory and practice of prison privatization in the United States in the 21st century providing a balanced compendium of research that allows readers to draw their own conclusions about this controversial subject This three volume set brings together noted scholars and experts in the field to provide a comprehensive treatment of the subject of privatized prisons in the United States It is a definitive work on the topic that synthesizes current thought on both the theory and practice of prison privatization Volume I provides a broad brush overview of private prisons that discusses the history of prison privatization and examines the expansion of the private prison industry and the growth of inmate populations in the United States Volume II focuses on the corrections industry itself providing essays that explore the business models profit motivations economic factors and operations of the corporations that offer corrections services while Volume III explores the political and social environment of prison privatization Academics practitioners policy makers and advocates for and against private prisons will find this work useful and enlightening while general readers can use the unbiased information to draw their own conclusions in respect to the merits of prison privatization Capitalist Punishment Alex Friedman, 2010-04-28 Over 100 000 people in the U S are incarcerated in prisons owned and operated by private corporations a booming business But how are the human rights of prisoners and prison employees affected when prisons are run for profit An accomplished group of human rights writers and activists explores the historical political and economic context of private prisons How are prisoners lives affected by privatization How does it impact prison labor and prison employees How and why are private prisons becoming transnational Are women children and African and Native Americans affected differently from other populations How is privatization connected to the war on drugs the criminalization of poverty and tough on crime politics The preface is by Sir Nigel Rodley Professor of Law at the University of Essex former United Nations Special Rapporteur for Torture and knighted in 1999 for recognition of services to human rights and international law Corrections Criminology Sean O'Toole, Simon Eyland, 2005 Corrections criminology Sean O Toole and Simon Eyland World correctional population trends and issues Mike Bartlett Prison populations in Australia Kyleigh Heggie Australian community corrections population trends and issues David Daley Prisonography Sources of knowledge and perspectives about prisons Lucien Lombard Commissions of inquiry and penal reform David Brown Security in correctional systems Ron Woodham Privatisation in the corrections industry Sean O Toole Human rights in corrections practice Brian Tkachuk and Eileen Skinnider Good corrections implications for leadership and organisational performance Ole Ingstrup Inspecting prisons Richard Harding Causes and prevention of violence in prisons Ross Homel and Carleen Thompson The over representation of indigenous persons in custody Bill Anscomb Risk and responsibilities in women s prisons Pat Carlen Managing an ageing prison population John Dawes Prisoner health Michael Levy Tony Butler Tony Falconer Managing mentally ill offenders released from jail the US experience Dale Sechrest and Don

Expulsions Saskia Sassen, 2014-05-05 Income inequality displaced and imprisoned populations destruction of land and water today s dislocations cannot be understood in the usual terms of poverty and injustice Saskia Sassen argues They are more accurately understood as expulsions from professional livelihood from living space from the very biosphere that makes life possible

Detention Empire Kristina Shull, 2022-08-30 The early 1980s marked a critical turning point for the rise of modern mass incarceration in the United States The Mariel Cuban migration of 1980 alongside increasing arrivals of Haitian and Central American asylum seekers galvanized new modes of covert warfare in the Reagan administration s globalized War on Drugs Using newly available government documents Shull demonstrates how migrant detention operates as a form of counterinsurgency at the intersections of US war making and domestic carceral trends As the Reagan administration developed retaliatory enforcement measures to target a racialized specter of mass migration it laid the foundations of new forms of carceral and imperial expansion Reagan s war on immigrants also sowed seeds of mass resistance Drawing on critical refugee studies community archives protest artifacts and oral histories Detention Empire also shows how migrants resisted state repression at every turn People in detention and allies on the outside including legal advocates Jesse Jackson s Rainbow Coalition and the Central American peace and Sanctuary movements organized hunger strikes caravans and prison uprisings to counter the silencing effects of incarceration and speak truth to US empire As the United States remains committed to shoring up its borders in an era of unprecedented migration and climate crisis reckoning with these histories takes on new urgency

Feminist Theories of Crime Merry Morash, 2017-07-05 This collection re imagines the field of criminology with insights gleaned from feminist theory Works included here illustrate that gender is a key organizing principle of social life This means that men and women have gender that patriarchy as well as gender must be theorized and that other systems of oppression such as race and class must also be studied to fully understand the crime problem and the criminal justice system Finally the articles collected here exemplify the feminist concern for thinking consciously about how and why we do our research with the crucial goal of producing knowledge that will promote social justice
