Taxi (English edition) Khaled Al Khamissi, 2012-03-15 A best selling modern masterpiece in the author's home country of Egypt. Taxi consists of fifty-eight fictional monologues with Cairo taxi drivers that have been recreated from the author's own experience taking the reader on a roller coaster of emotions as bumpy and noisy as the city's potholed and chaotic streets. Described as an urban sociology, an ethnography, a classic of oral history, and a work of poetry in motion, it tells Herculean tales of the struggle for survival and dignity among Greater Cairo's 80,000 cab drivers. The Bookseller, 1901 Vols for 1871-76, 1913-14 include an extra number. The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series. The School World, 1901. Calendar University College, London, 1901. The Scholars' Publication Sourcebook Seth Agbo, 2024-12-31 This book is a comprehensive guide for instructors and graduate students on preparing scholarly manuscripts for peer-reviewed journals, theses, or dissertations in the humanities and social sciences. Providing a toolbox of approaches to understand the structures around manuscript preparation, it offers an in-depth understanding of the different types of manuscripts and the nuanced approaches required. It illuminates each stage of the process from the initial identification of a topic to the publication of the final article. It draws on the expertise of various contributors, including journal editors, editorial board members, peer reviewers, and research methods instructors. The book is a practical guide for all instructors and students seeking insight into the publishing process in high-impact journals. It draws from case studies across various fields such as sociology, psychology, political science, business studies, policy research, and public health. The book will be of particular relevance to early-career scholars, graduate students, and instructors working with students preparing theses, dissertations, or journal articles. It serves as a valuable resource for understanding and navigating the complex world of academic publishing.

Muhenda (English version) Wilson Miguel, After the success and also the breaking of the law of the Black Lives Matter movement, all Blacks around the world were expelled, forced to return to Africa, creating a political division between Blacks and Whites. But the explosion of global warming and the rupture of the ozone layer grants world dominion and power over the only kingdom on the planet that holds natural resources, the kingdom of Muhenda in Africa. A place where white people were never welcome. However, an agent of the intelligence of the Whites manages to enter Muhenda. The king of Muhenda is murdered, and the white man is sentenced to death for the crime, and as retaliation, all the remaining Whites were made slaves. Years later, a dictator and tyrant empire rises, dominating all of Africa, inflicting terror, oppression, inequality, and pain. Led by the new king of Muhenda and the brother of the deceased emperor, Luther Nankela. That situation forces Sowety, a young African warrior queen, and Selena, a young white slave, to stand up, step up, and fight against the new system. Two different women, two enemy races, one almost impossible: gold freedom.

The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1889. RAQUEL (English Version) Sergio Mora Cantoral, 2019-06-01 Raquel is a novel that alludes to thousands of women who experience violence in an abrupt and brutal manner that leaves its mark not only on them but also on their families and in less visible ways on society as a whole Violence against women has escalated alarmingly in Mexico This increase has not only been quantitative but also in terms of cruelty so that when leaving home the feeling is one of fear of small and large scale violence harassment rape kidnapping death In the midst of this contemporary ferocity Raquel presents us with a story of strong courageous risk taking women who are also companions of men committed to respectful relationships A story where the mother with her example transmits strength and demonstrates to her daughters every day how to value themselves take care of themselves and be assertive Raquel presents a clear position the person responsible for violence is the one who commits it the State is the guarantor of Human Rights and the only task of the victim is to get ahead relying on who she decides and in the way she can Dark alleys majestic buildings and an imposing mountain in Guanajuato are the setting for a novel that takes us from despair to hope from frustration to pleasure and from fear to joy A novel that contains enough elements to make evident the fragility of the individual but how resoundingly strong he or she can be with others Raquel is like violence direct clear raw and at the same time powerful Raquel its protagonist kidnapped by a group of criminals who systematically use women for their own satisfaction takes us by the hand to discover organized crime networks and their alliances with the authorities while showing us what strength faith and the love of the family can achieve What connects us with the people we love What are the reaches of the psyche in extreme situations Can science prove what are the true limits of the mind Raquel invites us to leave aside the known and rational world and to enjoy the possibilities of intuition faith imagination the holistic that transcends time and space
