Process An Improviser S Journey:

Process Mary Scruggs, Michael J. Gellman, 2008 Process An Improviser s Journey is an invaluable resource for mastering improv Author teacher and improviser Michael Gellman was given a mission by famed improv coach Del Close To create improvised one act plays of literary quality from scratch Already steeped in the world of improvisation he took it upon himself to do this in the form of a class for other improvisers in which they would build the skills necessary to execute such a seemingly tall order Scruggs and Gellman s book modeled after Stanislavski s timeless An Actor Prepares follows a fictional young actor taking Gellman s real life class Scruggs and Gellman introduce readers to Geoff who has just moved to Chicago to pursue acting He undergoes the standard trials of audition and rejection before he takes the advice of a fellow actor and turns to improv classes at Second City At first Geoff thinks improvisation is about laughs and loosening up but he soon learns that it is a powerful tool as well as an end in itself Through Geoff s eyes the book introduces readers to key tenets of improvisation concentration visualization focus object work being in the moment and the crucial yes and His experiences with the basics of improvisation do serve to get him a few roles but his real breakthrough comes when he signs up for an improvised one act class with Michael Gellman He and his classmates arrive unprepared for the challenge but with Gellman s prompts and advice they slowly move through process to performance over the course of three seasons in Chicago The class culminates with their final project a completely improvised one act play performed in front of a live audience

Cervantine Journeys Steven D. Hutchinson, 1992 Hutchinson focuses initially on movement as concept and metaphor affirming its centrality in the conceptualization of all discursive activities He draws on an array of authors including Heraclitus Plato Longinus Rabelais Nietzsche Saussure Frances Yates Kristeva Meschonnic and Deleuze to demonstrate the motion of discourse and of those engaged in it He then turns to Cervantes novels to show how metaphors of movement and travel appearing on nearly every page dominate the conceptualization of the soul the self desire love and life processes

Viewing travel as a composite of concurrent modes of experience with differing content and rhythms Hutchinson considers the concept of errancy the nature of place and the traveler s shifting relations with it and the values that travel may have as a motion displacement encounter and goal Of key importance are the means of improvisation developed en route His re-examination of Bakhtin s chronotope in light of Cervante s novels reveals the dynamic character of time spaces in which travelers move He shows moreover that unlike typical Renaissance utopias the many worlds of Cervantes novels have the principles of becoming and dissolution inscribed in them Reflecting on the narrative of journeys both as memory and invention Hutchinson concludes with an examination of the relations between travel experience and travel narrative and a discussion of the whereabouts of writers and readers in Cervantes novels The narration of journeys he argues necessitates and encourages improvisatory writing
