Mudgirls Manifesto The Mudgirls Natural Building Collective, 2018-06-05 Building a Revolution one handful at a time In the face of widespread burnout and a world gone crazy how do we find things to say yes to rather than a resounding no On North America s West Coast there s a group of rebel women who ten years ago chose to break free from a rigged economic and social system They didn t take to the streets to lobby banks and governments to change their ways they didn t have time for that They had babies to feed and house They reckoned that if nobody else was going to change the rules to support basic human needs and respect the biosphere then we are all free to make our own rules They chose action They decided to teach themselves how to build houses using the most abundant material on earth mud They d learn by building gathering skills and allies They d have fun sharing whatever they learned with whoever wanted to come along for the ride The Mudgirls revolution was born Part story of rebel women grassroots self governance and community building part incendiary political and economic tract and part practical guide to building natural homes for real people Mudgirls Manifesto is about respecting the earth each other and crafting meaningful lives A powerful positive antidote to troubled times

Planning a Theme-based Curriculum Carla F. Berry, Gayle Mindes, 1993 A complete planning model with goals themes and activities for theme based teaching Living Pictures Noa Turel, 2020-09-25 A significant new interpretation of the emergence of Western pictorial realism When Jan van Eyck c 1390 1441 completed the revolutionary Ghent Altarpiece in 1432 it was unprecedented in European visual culture His novel visual strategies including lifelike detail not only helped make painting the defining medium of Western art they also ushered in new ways of seeing the world This highly original book explores Van Eyck s pivotal work as well as panels by Rogier van der Weyden and their followers to understand how viewers came to appreciate a world depicted in two dimensions Through careful examination of primary documents Noa Turel reveals that paintings were consistently described as au vif made not from life but into life Animation not representation drove Van Eyck and his contemporaries Turel s interpretation reverses the commonly held belief that these artists were inspired by the era s burgeoning empiricism proposing instead that their living pictures helped create the conditions for empiricism Illustrated with exquisite fifteenth century paintings this volume asserts these works key role in shaping rather than simply mirroring the early modern world The Builder ,1846 The Bulletin of the National Association of Secondary School Principals National Association of Secondary School Principals (U.S.),1955
