My Family Heritage

Each country has its own unique culture, history, and traditions. In this project, you will learn about the heritage of your family and share it with the class. You will create a brochure that includes information about your family's country, such as its name, capital city, population, language, and geography. You will also include a photo of your family and a picture of a traditional dish from your family's country. This project will help you learn more about your family's heritage and share it with others.

Directions:

- Choose a country that is your family's heritage.
- Research the country's name, capital city, population, language, and geography.
- Find a photo of your family and a picture of a traditional dish from your family's country.
- Create a brochure that includes all of this information.
- Share your brochure with the class.
