Evidence-based Decisions and Economics Ian Shemilt, Miranda Mugford, Luke Vale, Kevin Marsh, Cam Donaldson, 2011-09-22 The need for evidence based decisions that take account of both effectiveness and economics is greater now than ever Using case studies and illustrative examples throughout the authors describe how the activities and outputs of evidence synthesis systematic review economic analysis and decision making interact within and across different spheres of health and social policy and practice Expanding on the first edition the book now covers approaches to evidence synthesis that combine economics and systematic review methods in the applied fields of social welfare education and criminal justice as well as health care Written by economists and health services researchers closely involved in developing evidence based policy and practice it showcases current state of the art methodology and will be an invaluable read for all policy makers and practitioners using evidence to inform decisions analysts conducting research to support decisions and students discovering the need for evidence based decisions to incorporate economic perspectives and evidence

Introducing, Designing and Conducting Research for Paramedics Alexander Olausson, Kelly-Ann Bowles, Bill Lord, Brett Williams, 2022-09-15 The profession of paramedicine is rapidly expanding and primary research relating to prehospital interventions is exploding worldwide This new book provides for the first time a meaningful and easy to understand guide to research specifically tailored for paramedics Written by experts in research medicine and paramedicine Introducing Designing and Conducting Research for Paramedics introduces the reader to the concepts of research through real life examples The structure follows a logical sequence from an overview of the research process to how to generate consume and implement evidence This book will be a valuable resource for paramedics and prehospital clinicians at any level worldwide who wish to contribute to the rapidly emerging body of evidence on paramedicine and understand how they can make use of this in their practice Important concepts described in terms of their relevance to paramedicine making the text meaningful and easy to understand Written and edited by key academics and clinicians in the field of paramedic research Paramedicine examples used throughout to explain aspects of research methodology e.g. qualitative quantitative mixed methods and literature reviews Key objectives relevant terms reference lists further suggested readings and useful resources support the reader to engage further with research Discussion review questions and reflective exercises in each chapter to reinforce learning An eBook included with print purchase

Energy Research Abstracts, 1988 Photosystem II T. Wydrzynski, Kimiyuki Satoh, 2006-01-27 The most mysterious part of photosynthesis yet the most important for all aerobic life on Earth including ourselves is how green plants algae and cyanobacteria make atmospheric oxygen from water This thermodynamically difficult process is only achieved in Nature by the unique pigment protein complex known as Photosystem II using sunlight to power the reaction The present volume contains 34 comprehensive chapters authored by 75 scientific experts from around the world It gives an up to date account on all what is currently known about the molecular biology biochemistry biophysics and physiology of Photosystem II The book is divided into several parts detailing the protein constituents functional sites tertiary structure molecular dynamics and mechanisms of homeostasis The book ends with a comparison of Photosystem II with other related enzymes and bio mimetic systems Since the unique water splitting chemistry catalyzed by Photosystem II leads to the production of pure oxygen gas and has the potential for making hydrogen gas a primary goal of this book is to provide a molecular guide to future protein engineers and bio mimetic chemists in the development of biocatalysts for the generation of clean renewable energy from sunlight and water Book Review Digest
