Saunders, 2010 This study looks at a wide range of medieval English romance texts including the works of Chaucer and Malory from a broad cultural perspective to show that while they employ magic in order to create exotic escapist worlds they are also grounded in a sense of possibility and reflect a complex web of inherited and current ideas Book Jacket thomas hardy a study of the we sex novels, the poems, and the dynasts Henry Charles Duffin, Disturbing Conventions Rachel V Harrison, 2014-04-15 Disturbing Conventions draws the study of Thai literature out of the relative isolation that has to date impeded its participation in the wider field of comparative and world literature Predominantly penned by Thai academics the collection decentres Thai literary studies in order to move beyond the traditionalist conservative concerns of the academy which have until relatively recently foreclosed the use of Western theory in the study of Thai literature The book introduces new frames of analysis to the study of Thai literature to bring it into dialogue with debates in wider fields and the world beyond its national borders As a result Disturbing Conventions offers an essential contribution to the comparative study of world literature and Asian cultural studies Pedro Almodóvar Pedro Almodóvar, 2004 A collection of interviews that documents the 22 year long cinematic career of the most internationally celebrated Spanish art film director since Luis Buñuel Disturbing the Universe Roberta S. Trites, 1998-04-01 The Young Adult novel is ordinarily characterized as a coming of age story in which the narrative revolves around the individual growth and maturation of a character but Roberta Trites expands this notion by chronicling the dynamics of power and repression that weave their way through YA books Characters in these novels must learn to negotiate the levels of power that exist in the myriad social institutions within which they function including family church government and school      Novel

Medicine Andrew Schonebaum, 2016-04-01 By examining the dynamic interplay between discourses of fiction and medicine Novel Medicine demonstrates how fiction incorporated created and disseminated medical knowledge in China beginning in the sixteenth century Critical readings of fictional and medical texts provide a counterpoint to prevailing narratives that focus only on the literati aspects of the novel showing that these texts were not merely read but were used by a wide variety of readers for a range of purposes The intersection of knowledge fictional and real elite and vernacular illuminates the history of reading and daily life and challenges us to rethink the nature of Chinese literature      The Broadview Anthology of

Desire and Domestic Fiction Nancy Armstrong, 1987-05-07 Desire and Domestic Fiction argues that far from being removed from historical events novels by writers from Richardson to Woolf were themselves agents of the rise of the middle class Drawing on texts that range from 18th century female conduct books and contract theory to modern psychoanalytic case histories and theories of reading Armstrong shows that the emergence of a particular form of female subjectivity capable of reigning over the household paved the way for the establishment of institutions which today are accepted centers of political power Neither passive subjects nor embattled rebels the middle class women who were authors and subjects of the major tradition of British fiction were among the forgers of a new form of power that worked in and through their writing to replace prevailing notions of identity with a gender determined subjectivity She also examines the works of such novelists as Richardson Jane Austen and the Brontës to reveal the ways in which these authors rewrite the domestic practices and sexual relations of the past to create the historical context through which modern institutional power would seem not only natural but also humane and therefore to be desired

The Lure of the Modern Shumei Shi, 2001-04-20 Quite apart from her contributions as a literary critic Shu mei Shih is able to historicize literary developments of the period most persuasively Her analysis of Shanghai the city and the literary movement it spawned is crafted with great sensitivity to both history and literature In many ways it is the most inclusive historical study of modern Chinese literature in its formative period Prasenjit Duara author of Rescuing History from the Nation Tracing the spectral production of Chinese identity as it is disseminated globally Shih boldly moves away from using place ethnicity and the body race to anchor Chinese identity to argue that the visual film and the verbal language and linguistics are the most salient ones in the modern and contemporary historical formation She succeeds brilliantly David Palumbo Liu author of Asian American Historical Crossings of a Racial Frontier This is the most thoroughly researched study of Chinese modernism published to date The author's theoretical interventions greatly enrich our understanding of colonial modernity and the stakes of comparison in cross cultural studies The book is a major contribution to modern Chinese literary studies and comparative literature Lydia Liu editor of Tokens of Exchange

Look, a Negro! Robert Gooding-Williams, 2013-11-26 In Look a Negro political theorist Robert Gooding Williams imaginatively and impressively unpacks fundamental questions around race and racism Inspired by Frantz Fanon's famous description of the profound effect of being singled out by a white child with the words Look a Negro his book is an insightful rich and unusually wide ranging work of social criticism These essays engage themes that have dominated debates on race and racial identity in recent years the workings of racial ideology including the interplay of gender and sexuality in the articulation of racial ideology the viability of social constructionist theories of race the significance of Afrocentrism and multiculturalism for democracy the place of black identity in the imagination and articulation of America's inheritance of philosophy and the conceptualization of African American politics in post segregation America Look a Negro will be of interest to philosophers political theorists critical race theorists students of cultural studies and film and readers concerned with the continuing importance of race consciousness to democratic culture in the United States

The Bloomsbury Introduction to Adaptation Studies Yvonne Griggs, 2016-02-25 From David Lean's big screen Great Expectations to Alejandro Amenábar's reinvention of The Turn of the Screw as The Others adaptations of literary classics are a constant feature of popular culture today The Bloomsbury Introduction to Adaptation

Studies helps students master the history theory and practice of analysing literary adaptations Following an introductory overview of major debates and concepts each chapter focuses on a canonical text and features Case study readings of adaptations in a variety of media from film to opera televised drama to animated comedy show YA fiction to novel graphic novel Coverage of popular appropriations and re imaginings of the text Discussion questions and creative exercises throughout to guide students through their own analyses Annotated guides to further reading and viewing plus online resources The book also includes chapter overviews and a glossary of critical terms to give students quick access to key information for further study reference and revision The Bloomsbury Introduction to Adaptation Studies covers adaptations of Jane Eyre Great Expectations The Turn of the Screw The Great Gatsby The Horror Sensorium Angela Ndalanian, 2012-10-03 Horror films books and video games engage their audiences through combinations of storytelling practices emotional experiences cognitive responses and physicality that ignite the sensorium the sensory mechanics of the body and the intellectual and cognitive functions connected to them Through analyses of various mediums this volume explores how the horror genre affects the mind and body of the spectator Works explored include the films 28 Days Later and Death Proof the video games Resident Evil 4 and Doom 3 the theme park ride The Revenge of the Mummy transmedia experiences associated with The Dark Knight and True Blood and paranormal romance novels featuring Anita Blake and Sookie Stackhouse By examining how these diverse media generate medium specific corporeal and sensory responses it reveals how the sensorium interweaves sensory and intellectual encounters to produce powerful systems of perception

Rooney Custom Text: ENGL 2302A: Literature and Cultures, 1500-1700 Version 2 Broadview Custom Texts, 2024-03-18 This is a Broadview Custom Text created for students in Professor Morgan Rooney's ENGL 2302A Literature and Cultures 1500-1700 course at Carleton University History of Psychiatry and Medical Psychology Edwin R. Wallace, John Gach, 2010-04-13 Most of the prefatory issues are extensively elaborated upon in the Prolegomenon which also contains the complete references to the texts and authors discussed below Nevertheless the Preface would be grossly incomplete without touching on some of these issues books and scholars Too many of this book's chapters e.g. Mora's Marx's D.B. Weiner's examine and reference important earlier as well as contemporary general histories of psychiatry and specialized monographs in German French Italian and Spanish Also in his 1968 Short History of Psychiatry discussed below Ackerknecht pp. xi-xii references important nineteenth and earlier twentieth century psychiatric histories in English French and German Such citations will of course not be repeated here Finally thanks to several publishers re-editions of dozens of classical psychiatric texts one can consult their bibliographies as well See Prolegomenon for references to these splendid series In a rough and ready sense medical history began in classical Greece for example On Ancient Medicine While traditionally included in the Hippocratic corpus this text seems more likely to have been written by a non or even anti-Hippocratic doctor Moreover the Hippocratic and other schools were hardly as secular as we now suppose On Epilepsy for example does not so much declare the prevalent denotation of it as the sacred disease erroneous as it does that it is no more nor less sacred than any other disease
