, Shanghai Future Anna Greenspan, 2014 Charts the changing landscape of Shanghai as it embraces modernity Global Shanghai Remade Richard Hu, Weijie Chen, 2019-10-08 Examining the rise of Pudong and its role in re creating Shanghai as a global city Global Shanghai Remade utilises this important case study to shed light on contemporary globalisation and China's integration with the world since the late 20th century Unpacking the rise of Pudong in the context of Deng Xiaoping's nation building agenda this book explores the development of the district from its earliest planning into a global city centre through multiple perspectives In doing so it explores the role of key decision makers and actors the strategic planning process the approaches to urban development and some of the iconic projects that define the rise of Pudong Shanghai and China itself A timely volume for the 30th anniversary of China's strategy of developing and opening Pudong it combines the analyses and findings from these perspectives into a framework for a broader understanding of city making with Chinese characteristics The first study of its kind providing a comprehensive and systematic examination of Pudong this book will be useful for students and scholars of urban planning and design as well as Chinese Studies and Development Studies more generally The Future of Museum and Gallery Design Suzanne MacLeod, Tricia Austin, Jonathan Hale, Oscar Ho Hing-Kay, 2018-06-18 The Future of Museum and Gallery Design explores new research and practice in museum design Placing a specific emphasis on social responsibility in its broadest sense the book emphasises the need for a greater understanding of the impact of museum design in the experiences of visitors in the manifestation of the vision and values of museums and galleries and in the shaping of civic spaces for culture in our shared social world The chapters included in the book propose a number of innovative approaches to museum design and museum design research Collectively contributors plead for more open and creative ways of making museums and ask that museums recognize design as a resource to be harnessed towards a form of museum making that is culturally located and makes a significant contribution to our personal social environmental and economic sustainability Such an approach demands new ways of conceptualizing museum and gallery design new ways of acknowledging the potential of design and new experimental and research led approaches to the shaping of cultural institutions internationally The Future of Museum and Gallery Design should be of great interest to academics and postgraduate students in the fields of museum studies gallery studies and heritage studies as well as architecture and design who are interested in understanding more about design as a resource in museums It should also be of great interest to museum and design practitioners and museum leaders Shanghai Sacred Benoît Vermander, Liz Hingley, Liang Zhang, 2018-04-15 Shanghai a dynamic world metropolis is home to a multitude of religions from Buddhism and Islam to Christianity and Baha'ism to Hinduism and Daoism and many more In this city of 24 million inhabitants new religious groups and older faiths together claim and reclaim spiritual space Shanghai Sacred explores the spaces rituals and daily practices that make up the religious landscape of the city offering a new paradigm for the study of Chinese spirituality that reflects the global trends shaping Chinese culture and civil society Based on years of fieldwork incorporating both comparative and methodological perspectives Shanghai Sacred demonstrates how religions are lived constructed and thus inscribed into the social imaginary of the metropolis Evocative photographs by Liz Hingley enrich and interact with the narrative making the book an innovative contribution to religious visual ethnography Silencing

Shanghai Fang Xu, 2021-06-24 Silencing Shanghai investigates the paradoxical and counterintuitive contrast between Shanghai's emergence as a global city and the marginalization of its native population captured through the rapid decline of the distinctive Shanghai dialect From this unique vantage point Fang Xu tells a story of power relations in a cosmopolitan metropolis closely monitored and shaped by an authoritarian state through policies affecting urban redevelopment internal migration and language These state policies favor the rich the resourceful and the highly educated while alienate the poorer and less educated Shanghainese geographically and linguistically When the state vigorously promotes Mandarin Chinese through legal and administrative means Shanghainese made the conscious yet reluctant choice of shifting from the dialect to the national language At the same time millions of migrants have little incentive to adopt the vernacular given that their relation to the state has already firmly established their legal financial and social standing in the city The recent shift in the urban linguistic scene that silences the Shanghai dialect is ultimately part of the state led global city building process

Through the association of the use of national language with realizing the China Dream the state further eliminates the unique vernacular characters of Shanghai Chinese Urban Shi-nema David H. Fleming, Simon Harrison, 2020-11-30 This book dives into the mise en scene of contemporary China to explore the becoming cinema of Chinese cities societies and subjectivities Set in the wake of China's radical and rapid period of urbanization and infrastructural transformation and situating itself in the processual city of Ningbo the book combines empirical ficto critical and philosophical methods to generate a dynamic account of everyday life as new forms of consumer culture bed in Harnessing a Realist approach that allows for different scales of analysis the book zooms in on five architectural assemblages including surreal real estate showrooms a fragmented history museum China's first and best Sino foreign university a new Old town and weird gamified any now here spaces Together these modern arrangements and machines for living cast light upon the broader picture sweeping up greater China

Styling Shanghai Christopher Breward, Juliette MacDonald, 2020-01-23 Styling Shanghai is the first book dedicated to exploring the city's fashion cultures examining its growing status as one of the world's foremost fashion cities From its origins as an international treaty port in the 19th century Shanghai has emerged as a global leader in the production mediation and consumption of fashion This book reveals how the material and imaginative context of this thriving urban centre has produced vivid interpretations of fashion as object image and idea Bringing together contributions by a range of leading international fashion historians and theorists and drawing on extensive original research Styling Shanghai offers an interdisciplinary analysis of the mega city's shifting position as a fashion capital Rooted in collaboration

Monstrous Liminality Robert G. Beghetto, 2022-01-24 This book examines the transformation of the figure of the stranger in the literature of the modern age in terms of liminality As a spectral monster that has a paradoxical and liminal relationship to both the sacred and the secular the figure of the modern stranger has played a role in both adapting and shaping a culturally determined understanding of the self and the other With the advent of modernity the stranger the monster and the spectre became interconnected Haunting the edges of reason while also being absorbed into normal society all three together with the cyborg manifest the vulnerability of an age that is fearful of the return of the repressed Yet these figures can also become re appropriated as positive symbols able to navigate between the dangerous and chaotic elements that threaten society while serving as precarious and ironic symbols of hope or sustainability The book shows the explanatory potential of focusing on the resacralizing in a paradoxical and liminal manner of traditionally sacred concepts such as messianic time and the utopian and the conflicts that emerged as a result of secularized modernity s denial of its own hybridization This approach to modern literature shows how the modern stranger a figure that is both paradoxically immersed and removed from society deals with the dangers of failing to be re assimilated into mainstream society and is caught in a fixed or permanent state of liminality a state that can ultimately lead to boredom alienation nihilism and failure These monstrous aspects of liminality can also be rewarding in that traversing difficult and paradoxical avenues they confront both traditional and contemporary viewpoints enabling new and fresh perspectives suspended between imagination and reality past and future nature and artificial In many ways the modern stranger as a figure of literature and the cultural imagination has become more complicated and challenging in the post modern contemporary age both clashing with and encompassing people who go beyond simply the psychological or even spiritual inability to blend in and out of society However while the stranger may be altering once again the defining or essentializing the figure could result in the creation of other sets of binaries and thereby dissolve the purpose and productiveness of both strangeness and liminality The intention of Monstrous Liminality is to trace the liminal sphere located between the secular and sacred that has characterized modernity itself This space has consequently altered the makeup of the stranger from something external into a figure far more liminal which is forced to traverse this uncanny space in an attempt to find new meanings for an age that is struggling to maintain any
