

SUMMARY

- Amitav Ghosh's The Shadow Lines deals with political freedom in the modern world, nationalism and the shadow lines we people draw between us and nations.
- In its simplest form, the story is about a young boy in India (who is the narrator). The story begins in India and later transfers to London. The story moves through the young boy's memories and especially concentrates on the memory of his cousin, Ila, who he is attracted to.
- However, because of the social constrictions of his society, the narrator stays with a platonic relationship. Another interaction Ghosh focuses on is that of the narrator's relationship with another male cousin: Tridib.
