Exploration and Meaning Making in the Learning of Science Bernard Zubrowski,2009-08-14 Mountaineers Rock Climbers and Science Educators Around the 1920s rock climbing separated from mountaineering to become a separate sport At that time European climbers developed new equipment and techniques enabling them to ascend mountain faces and to climb rocks which were considered unassailable up to that time American climbers went further by expanding and improving on the equipment They even developed a system of quantification where points were given for the degree of difficulty of an ascent This system focused primarily on the pitch of the mountain and it even calculated up to de mals to give a high degree of quantification Rock climbing became a technical system Csikszentmihaly 1976 observed that the sole interest of rock climbers at that time was to climb the rock Rock climbers were known to reach the top and not even glance around at the scenery The focus was on reaching the top of the rock In contrast mountaineers saw the whole mountain as a single unit of perc tion The ascent to them is a gestalt including the aesthetic historical personal and physical sensations Csikszentmihaly 1976 p 486 This is an example of two contrasting approaches to the same kind of landscape and of two different groups of people Interestingly in the US Europe and Japan a large segment of the early rock climbers were young mathematicians and theoretical physicists while the mountaineers were a more varied lot J.B. Murray and the Scripts and Spirit Forms of Africa Licia Clifton-James, Maude Southwell Wahlman,2022-02-17 Providing an excellent example of why folk artists can be appreciated as carriers of knowledge even if they are unaware of it this book could change the ways we understand and appreciate American folk arts Connecting a sharecropper from Georgia in the Southern United States to a protector and healer in Touba Senegal West Africa the holy city of Mouridism and the final resting place of its founder Shaikh Ahmadou B mba Mb cke it makes an interesting link while examining the cultural aspects of two very different and yet similar paths of life Historians and art historians alike will find this investigation of African American art and folk culture both interesting and insightful Not only does this book trace the characteristics of art through the African Diaspora but it also traces Islam through those same diasporic transportations of colonial exploration and slavery Crafted Kinship Malene Barnett,2024-10-29 A visual journey of Caribbean art profiling more than 60 contemporary Caribbean artists curated by
