sustainability and eating local has brought about a grassroots effort to preserve the delicate nature of the Chesapeake Bay. Modern techniques such as oyster farming and fishing invasive species to protect the indigenous flora and fauna will be explored. Of course recipes will be presented to not only illustrate classic dishes that developed over time but also modern versions created by some of Maryland's top chefs. Book jacket. A Century of Restaurants Rick Browne, 2013-10-15 From the public television host of a tour of the US's oldest and greatest dining spots with delightful tales, delicious recipes, and hundreds of photographs, Ted Allen, host of Food Network's Chopped, come along on a pilgrimage to some of the oldest, most historic restaurants in America. Each is special, not only for its longevity but also for its historic significance, interesting stories, and of course, wonderful food. The oldest Japanese restaurant in the country is profiled, along with stagecoach stops, elegant eateries, barbecue joints, hamburger shops, cafes, bars, and grills, and two dueling restaurants that both claim to have invented the French dip sandwich. The bestselling author and host producer of Barbecue America shares the charm, history, and appeal that made these establishments some as many as three hundred years old. Each profile contains a famous recipe, the history of the restaurant, a look at the restaurant today, descriptions of some of its signature dishes, fun facts that make each place unique, and beautiful photos. It's all you need for an armchair tour of one hundred restaurants that have made America great. Browne spent three years traveling more than 46,000 miles to profile the 100 restaurants, inns, taverns, and public houses he selected as being the most historic, most interesting, and most successful. Orlando Sentinel. It is Browne's exploration of the history behind each place that I found most interesting. The White Horse Tavern gave him the Beef Wellington recipe; Peter Luger, the legendary Brooklyn Steakhouse, shared one for German Fried Potatoes; and Katz's Delicatessen in New York City offered Katz's Noodle Kugel. And Ferrara in Little Italy in New York City parted with its cannoli recipe. Sioux City Journal. Ask any chef: It's not easy keeping a restaurant alive for a week, let alone a year or a decade. So what does it take to last a century? After five years of crisscrossing the country and gobbling up regional specialties from chowder to chili, Rick Browne reveals the answer to that question. Ted Allen, host of Food Network's Chopped.
