Not Looking For Love Episode 3 Volume 3:

Blaze Lena Bourne, 2024-12-17 BLAZE is the eleventh book in the Devil's Nightmare MC series by USA Today Bestselling Author Lena Bourne. It is a standalone story with a guaranteed HEA ending, no cliffhanger and no cheating. Die in a blood feud or get the girl. The choice should be easy. Blaze. Years ago I walked away from a blood feud that has plagued my family for generations. I found a new family and a new home with Devil's Nightmare MC. But no one walks away from the feud. I should have known that I shouldn't have tried to. Now my brothers are in danger and I am the only one who can protect them. By my own death. There is no other way. And I will do what I must. But Misti, a girl who glows like starlight and makes me wish I had my whole life to devote to her, is determined to save me. But the thing is, she can't. Misti, born with an unfixable heart condition, I always knew I didn't have long. But now the unfixable has been fixed. I can live. I can have adventures. I can love. Finally, Blaze and I are meant to be. I've known it from the moment we met, and he looked at me like I am the only person in the world. I've known it from the moment we took our first ride into the sunset. The moment we first kissed in the moonlight. But he's headed for his death. Fast. I have one chance to pull him back. One road trip. I hope I am strong enough. But I'm afraid. I'm not. Blaze. Devil's Nightmare MC is a biker romance novel which deals with themes that may be uncomfortable for some readers. Intended for mature audiences.

This volume offers a narratological commentary on Digenis Akritis, a Byzantine heroic poem that blends epic and romance. How does the narrator shape the story? What roles do characters, space, and time play in creating meaning? In a detailed introduction followed by a linear commentary, Marketa Kulhankova answers these questions through a close reading of the poem's structure and techniques. She also examines how Digenis Akritis engages with earlier traditions through imitation and transtextuality while presenting a unique frontier hero. Offering clear, accessible tools for understanding Byzantine narrative, the book is an essential resource for

David Mikics, 1994 This book argues that critical tradition has obscured the mutually constitutive relation between the didactic mission of Renaissance epic and the pathos of the epic self Critics usually see Spenser and Milton either as poets dedicated to an autonomous aesthetic that dictates indulgence in pathos for its own sake or as Christian moralists who subordinate pathos to the didactic demands of society The Romantic tradition that stretches from Keats to Harold Bloom exemplifies the former option Neo Christian reader response and new historicist critics assert a contrary but similarly unbalanced view by choosing the didactic authority of social custom tradition or ideology over the pathos of subjectivity Resisting attempts to establish an absolute priority for either pathos or moralizing David Mikics looks to the debate between subjective passions and didactic imperatives as a sign of the complex relation between literary creation and social norms In a study that shies away from new historicist endorsements of the force of normative ideology as well as late Romantic celebrations of the poetic self the author finds that Spenser and Milton develop an innovative literary subjectivity under the pressure of the Reformation's moralizing aims Incorporating moral force within pathos would allow poetic passion to become a worthy and clearly justifiable public stance But Spenser and Milton in their pursuit of this rhetorical ideal find themselves acknowledging instead an enduring disjunction between affect and the discursive forms of public morality which aim to discipline or exploit it BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
