Rhodes University Application Form 2015:

#RhodesMustFall B. Nyamnjoh, 2016-04-18 This book on rights entitlements and citizenship in post apartheid South Africa shows how the playing field has not been as levelled as presumed by some and how racism and its benefits persist Through everyday interactions and experiences of university students and professors it explores the question of race in a context still plagued by remnants of apartheid inequality and perceptions of inferiority and inadequacy among the majority black population In education black voices and concerns go largely unheard as circles of privilege are continually regenerated and added onto a layered and deep history of cultivation of black pain These issues are examined against the backdrop of organised student protests sweeping through the countrys universities with a renewed clamour for transformation around a rallying cry of Black Lives Matter The nuanced complexity of this insightful analysis of the Rhodes Must Fall movement elicits compelling questions about the attractions and dangers of exclusionary articulations of belonging What could a grand imperialist like the stripling Uitlander or foreigner of yesteryear Sir Cecil John Rhodes possibly have in common with the present day nimble footed makwerekwere from Africa north of the Limpopo The answer Nyamnjoh suggests is to be found in how human mobility relentlessly tests the boundaries of citizenship

Struggle for a Free South Africa Derek Charles Catsam, 2024-02-15 This book explores anti apartheid movements on university and college campuses across Africa and the United States in the 1970s and 1980s In the wake of the March 1960 Sharpeville Massacre in South Africa the country s apartheid policies drew increasing critical international attention By the 1970s South Africa found itself isolated due to growing sporting economic and cultural boycotts Africans across the continent showed solidarity with Black South Africans through a range of boycotts and protests by hosting South Africans exiled from their home country and by vilifying the apartheid government at every turn This volume looks at elite institutions as well as state colleges and universities in the United States and the actions of university students in Nigeria Kenya Ghana and South Africa during the anti apartheid movements in the 1970s and 1980s revealing the local manifestations of a global struggle The chapters showcase how vibrant campus anti apartheid movements were what universal problems emerged and where unique concerns manifested at a wide range of institutions Taking innovative approaches and offering case studies Struggle for a Free South Africa reveals the myriad ways the anti apartheid struggle manifested in a range of academic environments and how those campaigns have been remembered and documented This book was originally published as a special issue of Safundi

Feeling lives: An intersectional exploration of past experiences and present living Lindsay Clowes, LJ Theo, Nadia Sanger, Landa Mabenge, Sisa Ngabaza, 2023-11-15 We each make sense of the world through our embodied feeling lives We do it through the social groupings contexts and processes which history rather than biology presents and assigns to us In this collection we aim to illustrate how these embodied feelings and emotions underpin contemporary theorising by sharing reflective autobiographical writing by individuals from a wide range of backgrounds and contexts This somewhat unruly collection

unsettles conventional academic writing precisely because authors have grounded themselves in the tangible and the personal rather than in abstract theory We hope that readers might see aspects of their own lives in some of these stories develop better understandings of lives that are experienced very differently and start or continue to theorise their own lives

Digital Preservation and Documentation of Global Indigenous Knowledge Systems Masenya, Tlou Maggie, 2023-08-03

Indigenous knowledge is regarded as undocumented cultural local traditional and community knowledge produced and owned by local people in their specific communities It is mainly preserved in the memories of elders and shared or passed on from generation to generation through oral communication traditional practices and demonstrations This irreplaceable resource may be lost forever as a direct result of the pressures of modernization colonization and globalization Concern over the loss of Indigenous knowledge has thus raised a need for the preservation and documentation of this knowledge in digital formats Digital Preservation and Documentation of Global Indigenous Knowledge Systems determines how Indigenous knowledge can be documented and digitally preserved to benefit Indigenous knowledge owners and their communities and be accessible for future generations The book provides the best practices innovative strategies theoretical and conceptual frameworks and empirical research findings regarding the digital preservation and documentation of Indigenous knowledge systems worldwide Covering topics such as digital media platforms educational management and knowledge systems this premier reference source is a valuable and useful tool for students information professionals knowledge managers records managers Indigenous knowledge owners Indigenous community leaders librarians archivists computer scientists information technology specialists students and educators of higher education researchers and academicians Handbook on Teaching and Learning for Sustainable Development Walter Filho Leal, Amanda Lange Salvia, Fernanda Frankenberger, 2021-06-25

Re-imagining Curriculum Lynn Quinn, 2019-11-15 The book argues that academics academic developers and academic leaders need to undertake curriculum work in their institutions that has the potential to disrupt common sense notions about curriculum and create spaces for engagement with scholarly concepts and theories to re imagine curricula for the changing times Now more than ever in the history of higher education curriculum practices and processes need to be shared the findings of research undertaken on curriculum need to be disseminated to inform curriculum work We hope the book will enable readers to look beyond their contextual difficulties and constraints to find spaces where they can dream and begin to implement innovative and creative solutions to what may seem like intractable challenges or difficulties Online around the World Laura M. Steckman, Marilyn J. Andrews, 2017-05-24

Covering more than 80 countries around the world this book provides a compelling contemporary snapshot of how people in other countries are using the Internet social media and mobile apps How do people in other countries use the social media platform Facebook differently than Americans do What topics are discussed on the largest online forum one in Indonesia with more than seven million registered users Why does Mongolia rate in the top ten countries worldwide for peak Internet speeds Readers of Online around the World A Geographic Encyclopedia of the Internet Social Media and Mobile Apps will discover the answers to these questions and learn about people's Internet and social media preferences on six continents outside of the online community of users within the United States The book begins with an overview of the Internet social media platforms and mobile apps that chronologically examines the development of technological innovations that have made the Internet what it is today The country specific entries that follow the overview provide demographic information and describe specific events influenced by online communications allowing readers to better appreciate the incredible power of online interactions across otherwise unconnected individuals and the realities and peculiarities of how people communicate in today's fast paced globalized and high technology environment This encyclopedia presents social media and the Internet in new light identifying how the use of language and the specific application of human culture impacts emerging technologies and communications dramatically affecting everything from politics to social activism education and censorship

Epistemic Freedom in Africa Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2018-06-27 Epistemic Freedom in Africa is about the struggle for African people to think theorize interpret the world and write from where they are located unencumbered by Eurocentrism The imperial denial of common humanity to some human beings meant that in turn their knowledges and experiences lost their value their epistemic virtue Now in the twenty first century descendants of enslaved displaced colonized and racialized peoples have entered academies across the world proclaiming loudly that they are human beings their lives matter and they were born into valid and legitimate knowledge systems that are capable of helping humanity to transcend the current epistemic and systemic crises Together they are engaging in diverse struggles for cognitive justice fighting against the epistemic line which haunts the twenty first century The renowned historian and decolonial theorist Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni offers a penetrating and well argued case for centering Africa as a legitimate historical unit of analysis and epistemic site from which to interpret the world whilst simultaneously making an equally strong argument for globalizing knowledge from Africa so as to attain ecologies of knowledges This is a dual process of both deprovincializing Africa and in turn provincializing Europe The book highlights how the mental universe of Africa was invaded and colonized the long standing struggles for an African university and the trajectories of contemporary decolonial movements such as Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall in South Africa This landmark work underscores the fact that only once the problem of epistemic freedom has been addressed can Africa achieve political cultural economic and other freedoms This groundbreaking new book is accessible to students and scholars across Education History Philosophy Ethics African Studies Development Studies Politics International Relations Sociology Postcolonial Studies and the emerging field of Decolonial Studies The Open Access versions Chapter 1 and Chapter 9 available at <https://doi.org/10.4324/9780429492204> have been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Inclusive Education in South African Further and Higher Education Tsediso Michael Makoelle, Cina P. Mosito, 2025-05-26 A historical overview of the evolution of inclusive education alongside the emergence of concepts such as of equity and access highlighting how these ideas have evolved been enacted and practiced in the higher education institutions HEIs of South Africa since 2001 African Studies: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources, 2020-04-03 Global interest in African studies has been rapidly growing as researchers realize the importance of understanding the impact African communities can have on the economy development education and more As the use acceptance and popularity of African knowledge increases it is crucial to explore how this community based knowledge provides deeper insights understanding and influence on such things as decision making and problem solving African Studies Breakthroughs in Research and Practice examines the politics culture language history socio economic development methodologies and contemporary experiences of African peoples from around the world Highlighting a range of topics such as indigenous knowledge developing countries and public administration this publication is an ideal reference source for sociologists policymakers anthropologists government officials economists instructors researchers academicians and graduate level students in a variety of fields Traditional Leaders in a Democracy MISTRA MISTRA, 2019-03-29 Post 1994 South Africa's traditional leaders have fought for recognition and positioned themselves as major players in the South African political landscape Yet their role in a democracy is contested with leaders often accused of abusing power disregarding human rights expropriating resources and promoting tribalism Some argue that democracy and traditional leadership are irredeemably opposed and cannot co exist Meanwhile shifts in the political economy of the former bantustans the introduction of platinum mining in particular have attracted new interests and conflicts to these areas with chiefs often designated as custodians of community interests This edited volume explores how chieftancy is practised experienced and contested in contemporary South Africa It includes case studies of how those living under the authority of chiefs in a modern democracy negotiate or resist this authority in their respective areas Chapters in this book are organised around three major sites of contest leadership land and law Patrolling Epistemic Borders in a World of Borderless Pandemics Artwell Nhemachena, Rewai Makamani, 2021-11-19 The global epistemological gendarmerie do not only police epistemologies but they also infect the world with infectious epidemics of laughter targeted at those people whose epistemologies are offhandedly condemned as sterile and useless in controlling and containing pandemics Patrolling epistemic borders in ways that demobilise indigenous epistemologies the global epistemological policemen have ironically managed to prevent transgressive epistemologies from crossing borders but they have fatally failed to prevent the transgressive COVID 19 from recurrently crossing borders be they bodily national or continental Brandishing fetishised degree and diploma certificates African comprador academics who are more interested in fetishised ranks and titles than in creativity and innovation have also fatally failed to help African communities by producing vaccines for Africans by Africans Arguing that Eurocentric epistemologies have become sterile fetishes the book contends that such epistemologies have disabled African scholars from actively producing vaccines on a continent where there are paradoxically more epidemics of mimetic laughter than there are efforts at creativity and innovation The book is useful for scholars in sociology anthropology development studies languages and communication natural sciences historical studies and social work

Early Cycladic Sculpture in Context Marisa Marthari, Colin Renfrew, Michael J. Boyd, 2017-01-04 The sculpture of the early bronze age Cyclades has been systematically studied since the time of Christos Tsountas at the end of the 19th century But that study has been hampered by the circumstance that so many of the subsequent finds come from unauthorized excavations where the archaeological context was irretrievably lost Largely for that reason there are still many problems surrounding the chronology the function and the meaning of Early Cycladic sculpture This lavishly illustrated and comprehensive reassessment sets out to rectify that situation by publishing finds which have been recovered in controlled excavations in recent years as well as earlier finds for which better documentation can now be provided Using the material from recent excavation projects and drawing on the papers presented at a symposium held in Athens in 2014 it is possible now to undertake a fresh overview of the entire body of sculpture from the Cycladic islands which has been found in secure archaeological contexts Beginning with early examples from Neolithic settlement sites and extending into a consideration of material found in later contexts the 35 chapters are divided into sections which examine sculpture from settlements cemeteries and the sanctuary at Kavos concluding with a discussion of material techniques and aspects of manufacture
