Time healed the wounds that the past left behind. I was in love, and one man changed my whole world. Every day Bentley just didn't spoil me, but it seemed like there was a new adventure we were on. Our relationship was perfect in every way except one thing: Bentley was my stepsibling. When we went to our family's house on the west coast, we had to pretend there was nothing going on between us. Our family not only wouldn't understand our relationship but they were continuously trying to get us back with our ex-spouses. Thanksgiving already proved that my mother was willingly going to set me back up with my ex-husband. His father, on the other hand, tried to get him back with his ex-wife. I wanted to scream.

but doing so didn't work. All I could do was hold on and wait until we both left for Cancun, Mexico. The memories were still fresh in my mind of the wonderful time we spent there. My heart belonged to Bentley, and I knew no one else could ever replace him. I also knew he felt the same way about me. He gave me a ring promising his love to me. What I wasn't sure about was how long we could hide this from both of our parents. I didn't care any longer. I loved Bentley. Have your copy NOW. Alexander Bill grew up on Quackenbush Avenue in Brooklyn. She'd had a provincial childhood walking the distance between her grandparents' house and home, just three doors away. She'd never wanted for anything and had adored her father, but her dream was to become a teacher and move somewhere out west. If there was one thing that prevented her from dreaming, it was her father. He was a New Yorker through and through, and the world beyond New York ceased to exist. He thought Alex would one day marry a nice New York boy and live somewhere in Brooklyn. Alex's mother had left when she was two, after falling in love with a guy who predicted that one day wine would be big. He was right, and they'd settled in northern California and had joined the ranks of the very wealthy. Alex also inherited a stepbrother named Thom that she rarely saw but disliked just the same. When her mother offered her a job in the company business, Alex decided to try it for a year. The salary was great, but the thought of finally seeing the world appealed to her the most. She'd been dreaming of foreign lands her entire life. What she didn't expect was to have to work closely with a stepbrother who had a penchant for business and an even better penchant for love.
