Britain and the Dhofar War in Oman, 1963-1976 Geraint Hughes, 2024-03-16 This book explores Britain's involvement in the Dhofar War of 1963-1976 focusing on the military aspects of this conflict in Southern Oman It reveals how both the Conservative and Labour governments in office during this time provided military and security assistance to Oman's rulers without parliamentary or press scrutiny. Based on archival material and witness accounts as well as existing secondary source literature and memoirs this study provides new insights into Britain's clandestine embroilment in the Dhofar War an often overlooked but historically significant intervention in the Middle East. This book will be a valuable resource for scholars and students interested in the complex and often controversial history of Britain's involvement in Middle Eastern politics in the post colonial period.

Evidence-Based Practice Janet Houser, Kathleen S. Oman, 2010-06-14 This book is Print on Demand. Orders can take 4-6 weeks to fulfill. Evidence Based Practice: An Implementation Guide for Healthcare Organizations was created to assist the increasing number of hospitals that are attempting to implement evidence based practice in their facilities with little or no guidance. This manual serves as a guide for the design and implementation of evidence based practice systems and provides practice advice worksheets and resources for providers. It also shows institutions how to achieve Magnet status without the major investment in consultants and external resources. The ideal reference for graduate and post graduate nursing research courses and evidence based practice courses. 2011. 282 pages. Humanities in Primary Education Don Kimber, Nick Clough, Martin Forrest, Penelope Harnett, Ian Menter, Elizabeth Newman, 2013-11-26 First Published in 1995. This innovative series is an ideal means of supporting professional practice in the post-Dearing era when a new focus on the quality of teaching and learning is possible. The series promotes reflective teaching and active forms of pupil learning. The books explore the implications of these commitments for curriculum and curriculum related issues. This book has emerged out of the collective experience of six colleagues who work together at the Faculty of Education of the University of the West of England in Bristol. The twin strands here are a social constructivist model of learning and a reflective teaching model of pedagogy. Through reflecting on our experiences and evaluating their intentions practices and outcomes not only do we learn but we also enrich the learning of those children pupils and students with whom we are working.
