Global Perspectives on Youth Language Practices Cynthia Groff, Andrea Hollington, Ellen Hurst-Harosh, Nico Nassenstein, Jacomine Nortier, Helma Pasch, Nurenzia Yannuar, 2022-02-07 Most journal articles edited volumes and monographs on youth language practices deal with one specific variety one geographical setting or with one specific continent This volume bridges these different studies and it approaches youth language from a much broader angle A global framework and a diversity of methodologies enable a wider perspective that gives room to comparisons of youth s manipulations and linguistic agency transnational communicative practices and language contact scenarios The research presented addresses structural features of everyday talk and text youth identity issues related to specific purposes and contexts and sociocultural emphases on ideologies and belonging Combining insights into sociolinguistic and structural features of youth language the volume includes case studies from Asia Indonesia Australia and Oceania Arnhem Land New Ireland South America the Amazon Chile Argentina Europe Germany Spain and Africa Uganda Nigeria DR Congo Central African Republic South Africa It expands on existing publications and offers a more comparative and global approach without a division of youth s strategies in terms of geographical space or language family

This collection including a conceptual introduction is of interest to scholars from several linguistic subfields working in different regional contexts as well as sociologists and anthropologists working in the field of adolescence and youth studies

Components of Emotional Meaning Johnny R. J. Fontaine, Klaus R. Scherer, Cristina Soriano, 2013-08 When using emotion terms such as anger sadness fear disgust and contempt it is assumed that the terms used in the native language of the researchers and translated into English are completely equivalent in meaning This is often not the case This book presents an extensive cross cultural linguistic review of the meaning of emotion words XXX International Congress of Psychology: Abstracts Michele Robert, 2017-10-03 The abstracts of the XXX International Congress of Psychology July 2012 Cape Town are published as a supplement to Volume 47 of the International Journal of Psychology The published volume includes the abstracts of the invited addresses symposia oral and poster presentations numbering over 5 000 separate contributions and creating an invaluable overview of the discipline of psychological science around the world today

Human Aspects of Information Security and Assurance Nathan Clarke, Steven Furnell, 2024-11-27 The two volume set IFIP AICT 721 722 constitutes the proceedings of the 18th IFIP WG 11 12 International Symposium on Human Aspects of Information Security and Assurance HAISA 2024 held in Skövde Sweden in July 9 11 2024 The 39 full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 55 submissions The papers are organized in the following topical sections Part I Management and Risk Social Engineering Technical Attacks and Defenses Usable Security Part II Awareness and Education Privacy Public Health Communication Challenges to Minority and Indigenous Communities Aiseng, Kealeboga, Fadipe, Israel A., 2024-04-30 Language has emerged as both a powerful bridge and a formidable barrier in the realm of public health communication The ongoing COVID 19 pandemic has highlighted a significant challenge faced by minority and indigenous communities particularly in regions of Sub Saharan Africa It is a challenge deeply rooted in the historical use of colonial languages English French and Spanish to disseminate critical health information For many this has translated into a linguistic exclusion depriving them of access to essential resources and a voice in matters of national interest This issue transcends mere communication it touches upon the fundamental rights of individuals to participate in their own healthcare decisions and influences their sense of belonging and citizenship Public Health Communication Challenges to Minority and Indigenous Communities proposes a solution with a transformative potential This groundbreaking edited volume invites scholars from diverse fields to contribute their research shedding light on the linguistic dimensions of public health communication during the COVID 19 era By investigating the impact of language on various aspects of society from medical information to education this book seeks to synthesize the wealth of sociolinguistic research into an accessible framework It is an invitation to explore the role of language in shaping our perceptions of citizenship belonging and empowerment The Standardisation of African Languages, 2008 Taking Ethno-Cultural Diversity Seriously in Constitutional Design Solomon A. Dersso, 2012 Using a legal and multidisciplinary approach towards empirical and prescriptive analysis of contemporary minority rights standards this book defends and elaborates a robust minority rights framework for articulating a constitutional design responsive to the claims of ethno cultural groups in Africa

The Oxford Guide to the Bantu Languages Lutz Marten, Ellen Hurst-Harosh, Nancy C. Kula, Jochen Zeller, 2025-08-19 This volume brings together leading scholars from Africa Europe the Americas and beyond to provide a detailed account of the languages of the Bantu family which cover an area from Cameroon and Kenya in the north to South Africa in the south The Bantu family is part of the Niger Congo phylum and one of the world s biggest language groups comprising around 500 languages The family includes major languages with large numbers of speakers such as Zulu Kinyarwanda and Swahili the most widely spoken and taught African language as well as many community languages and several endangered languages Bantu languages feature prominently in the complex and multilingual language ecologies that are characteristic of the linguistic situation in much of Africa and they provide rich evidence for the study of theoretical and comparative linguistics language contact and language change They play an important role in education commerce culture and artistic expression in the media and public discourse in governance and social justice and are central to the future of the continent and the well being of its communities The first part of The Oxford Guide to the Bantu Languages provides background and context with chapters exploring the history of research in the field language and prehistory in Bantu speaking Africa and typology and variation Chapters in the second part offer broad comparative overviews of Bantu phonology morphology syntax semantics and pragmatics socio and applied linguistics before Parts III VII cover more specific topics in Bantu linguistics across a variety of subfields ranging from structural issues such as the augment and melodic tone to historical and sociolinguistic topics such as Bantu languages in the diaspora and language policy and standardization The chapters in the final part offer individual structural overviews of a range of languages from across the Bantu speaking area The book will be an essential resource for students and researchers specializing in the Bantu languages and for typologists and comparative linguists more broadly

Cross-border Languages Karsten Legère, 1998 Anthropologica ,2003 African Books in Print ,1978

The Politics of Egalitarianism Jacqueline Solway, 2006-03-01 The essays assembled in this book exemplify the way political anthropologists address a range of problems that deeply affect people throughout the world The authors draw their inspiration from the work of Canadian anthropologist Richard B Lee and like him they are concerned with understanding and acting upon issues of indigenous rights the impact of colonialism postcolonial state formation and neoliberalism on local communities and cultures the process of culture change what the history and politics of egalitarian societies reveal about issues of human nature or social evolution and how peoples in southern Africa are affected by and responding to the most recent crisis in their midst the spread of AIDS The authors in this volume discuss the state of a range of contemporary debates in the field that in various ways extend the political theoretical and empirical issues that have animated Lee s work In addition the book provides readers with important contemporary Kalahari studies as well as classic works on foraging societies

Embracing the Beat of Appearance: An Mental Symphony within North West Paper 2 Setswana

In a world consumed by displays and the ceaseless chatter of fast transmission, the melodic splendor and mental symphony created by the prepared term frequently diminish in to the back ground, eclipsed by the constant noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. However, nestled within the pages of North West Paper 2 Setswana a wonderful fictional treasure filled with organic feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful composer of language, this charming masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological journey, well unraveling the hidden melodies and profound affect resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of this poignant assessment, we can discover the book is central harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing design, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
