Notice and Note

When a character notices, understands, or truly figures out something.

STOP and ask

"How might this change things?"

This answer will help you understand what the character is thinking, feeling, or doing. It will also help you understand what might happen next in the story.

Notice and Note

When a character asks himself a very difficult question.

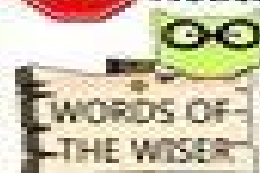

STOP and ask

"What does this question make me wonder about?"

This answer will help you understand the character's thoughts and feelings about what might happen next in the story.

Notice and Note

When a character or the author takes the time to share advice and offer encouragement.

STOP and ask

"What's the life lesson and how might it affect the character?"

This lesson is probably the theme of the story.

Notice and Note

When you notice a word, phrase, or situation mentioned over and over.

STOP and ask

"Why does this keep happening again and again?"

This answer will help you understand the theme, what the author is trying to say, and what might happen next in the story.

Notice and Note

When a character has something to compare and contrast or make a contrast or point.

STOP and ask

"Why is the character doing that?"

The answer will help you make predictions and draw inferences about the plot and conflict.

Notice and Note

When the author interrupts the action to tell you about a memory.

STOP and ask

"Why might this memory be important?"

This answer will help you understand the theme, what the author is trying to say, and what might happen next in the story.
