

Rhetorical Analysis Essay Outline

I. Introduction: Rhetorical Précis:

- A. Name of author, (appositive phrase about the author to establish credibility & authority) genre, and title of work; a rhetorically accurate verb (such as "assert," "argue," "suggest," "imply," "claim," etc.); and a THAT clause containing the major assertion (thesis statement) of the work.
- B. An explanation of how the author develops and/or supports the thesis, usually in chronological order.
- C. A statement of the author's apparent purpose followed by and "in order" phrase.
- D. A description of the intended audience and the relationship the author establishes with the audience

II. Body Paragraph #1:

- A. Topic sentence/transition: "(author's last name) begins with/by...(make your claim about what strategy you see working address the purpose/prompt)"
- B. Specific example to support idea: provide EXPLICIT textual support woven into your comments to support your claim. Thoroughly discuss all strategies used in the beginning section, supporting with text. (Should be at least two or more complex, stylistic sentences.)
- C. Discussion of how examples supports idea: Connect the strategy back to your main claim/thesis/the purpose.

III. Body Paragraph #2:

- A. Topic sentence/transition: "After... the author moves to..." "Building off the strategy he/she used to begin, he/she ..." Connect an idea from the last sentence of the previous paragraph to the first sentence of this paragraph showing how the strategies build upon each other.
- B. Provide EXPLICIT textual support woven into your comments to support your claim. Thoroughly discuss all strategies used in the middle section, supporting with text. Should be at least two or more complex, stylistic sentences.
- C. Discussion of how example supports idea: Connect the strategy back to your main claim/thesis/ the purpose.

IV. Last Body Paragraph:

- A. Topic sentence/transition: "to close the essay/speech, (author)..." "Concluding the argument he/she ..." Connect an idea from the last sentence of the previous paragraph to the first sentence of this paragraph showing how the strategies build upon each other.
- B. Provide EXPLICIT textual support woven into your comments to support your claim. Thoroughly discuss all strategies used in the middle section, supporting with text. Should be at least two or more complex, stylistic sentences.
- C. Discussion of how example supports idea: Connect the strategy back to your main claim/thesis/ the purpose.

V. Conclusion

- A. Restatement of thesis that digs deeper into the overall intended meaning of the text than the one in the introductory paragraph (Try not to begin your conclusion paragraph with "In conclusion").
- B. Reflection on examples and main ideas in body paragraphs, significance of these strategies, AND how they are linked to your thesis.
- C. State if these were effective in conveying the claim/thesis/purpose.
- D. Closing thought - closing out the main purpose of the text being analyzed.

Rhetorical Analysis Paper Outline:

Reading and Writing for Civic Literacy Donald Lazere, 2017-07-05 Lazere's book is heaven sent and will provide a crucial link in the chain of understanding how conflicts are structured and most importantly how they can be rationally addressed a healthy antidote to the scepticism that has become so pervasive in academic life Alan Hausman Hunter College This innovative book addresses the need for college students to develop critical reading writing and thinking skills for self defence in the contentious arena of American civic rhetoric In a groundbreaking reconception of composition theory it presents a comprehensive critical perspective on American public discourse and practical methods for its analysis Exercises following the text sections and readings help students understand the ideological positions and rhetorical patterns that underlie opposing viewpoints in current controversies such as the growing inequality of wealth in America and its impact on the finances of college students as expressed in paired sets of readings from the political left and right Widely debated issues of whether objectivity is possible and whether there is a liberal or conservative bias in news and entertainment media as well as in education itself are foregrounded as topics for rhetorical analysis

Educational Technology Jerry W. Willis, 2008-10-01 Qualitative Research Methods in Education and Educational Technology was written for students and scholars interested in exploring the many qualitative methods developed over the last 50 years in the social sciences. The book does not stop, however, at the boundaries of the social sciences. Social scientists now consume and use research methods from many fields. The rich resources of research methods and theories from both the humanities and philosophy are also covered in this book. It explains why postpositivist quantitative research should not be the only game in town and provides solid theoretical foundations beginning with the positions of Plato and Aristotle for broadening our horizons about what warrants our attention. Using Aristotle's concept of phronesis, the author shows why methods such as narrative research and storytelling, hermeneutic inquiry, literary theory, philosophical inquiry, and much more have important applications in education and educational technology. On those foundations, the author also builds a framework for doing many types of research, from participatory action research to content analysis to postmodern case studies to empowerment research and philosophical inquiry. He accomplishes this through a combination of original text, summaries of exemplary research in education and educational technology, and suggested readings that are annotated and introduced at the end of each chapter. Many of these readings are available online, and they extend the discussion of research methods or serve as exemplars of a particular type of educational technology research. There are open-ended and conceptual questions for each reading, and developing your own answers to them is one way you can extend your depth of understanding about qualitative research methods in education and educational technology.

A Brief Guide to Writing from Readings

Stephen Wilhoit, 2006-07 This brief guide teaches students how to write the most common papers assigned in college courses: source-based essays that summarize, analyze, critique, and synthesize. Comprehensive enough to serve as a primary text yet compact enough to serve as a supplement, this clear and concise writing guide teaches students how to critically read, clearly summarize, carefully respond to, precisely critique, creatively synthesize, and accurately quote or paraphrase texts. A Brief Guide is a valuable teaching and reference tool that students of many disciplines find useful for class work and for independent study.
