Erika Fischer-Lichte, Torsten Jost, Saskya Iris Jain, 2014-01-10. This book provides a timely intervention in the fields of performance studies and theatre history and to larger issues of global cultural exchange. The authors offer a provocative argument for rethinking the scholarly assessment of how diverse performative cultures interact, how they are interwoven and how they are dependent upon each other. While the term intercultural theatre as a concept points back to postcolonialism and its contradictions, The Politics of Interweaving Performance Cultures explores global developments in the performing arts that cannot adequately be explained and understood using postcolonial theory. The authors challenge the dichotomy the West and the rest where Western cultures are universal and non-Western cultures are particular as well as ideas of national culture and cultural ownership. This volume uses international case studies to explore the politics of globalization looking at new paternalistic forms of exchange and the new inequalities emerging from it. These case studies are guided by the principle that processes of interweaving performance cultures are in fact political processes. The authors explore the inextricability of the aesthetic and the political whereby aesthetics cannot be perceived as opposite to the political rather the aesthetic is the political.

Paths to Contemporary French Literature John Taylor, 2017-07-05 Praised for his independence curiosity intimate knowledge of French literature and sharp reader's eye John Taylor is a writer critic who is naturally skeptical of literary fashions overnight reputations and readymade academic categories Here he examines various genres of politically committed literature such as Jean Hatzfeld's narratives about Rwanda or Tchicaya U Tam si's verse some overlooked fiction and several provocative experiments with literary form ranging from the poetry of Jean Paul Michel and Marie etienne to the three line novels of Felix Feneon Taylor continues to reveal the remarkable resourcefulness of French writing Besides drawing attention to authors like Dai Sijie or Albert Cossery who have come to French from other languages he has added younger novelists to his critical panorama Challenging persistent cliches and recovering deserving voices from unjust neglect Taylor's vision of French literature conjures up the image of a vital nexus Poetry crisscrosses with prose writers from one generation meet up with those from the next or the previous one while the philosophical ideas underlying French writing are scrutinized This is an essential guide to the realities of French culture today Mad Forest Caryl Churchill, 1992 This timely drama resulted from a trip to Romania Developed with students from London's Central School of Drama this is an incisive portrait of society in turmoil that focuses on two families to reveal what life is like under a totalitarian regime and what results when the regime collapses The play's brief scenes are almost cinematic in their presentation of events as seen by ordinary people trying to live in peace Publisher's description Nacionalni jeziki v visokem šolstvu Marjeta Humar, 2010-01-01 Zbornik vsebuje dopolnjena in za objavo prirejena predavanja ki so jih predstavili udeleženci mednarodne konference z naslovom Jezikovna različnost in nacionalni jeziki v visokem olstvu ki je potekala 19 in 20 novembra 2009 v Ljubljani Prispevki ki so objavljeni v zborniku prikazujejo položaj nacionalnih jezikov v visokem olstvu in znanosti v teh državah opozarjajo pa tudi na izgubo strokovnih področij in vpliv anglešine na nacionalne terminologije The Conscience of Humankind ,2021-11-22 The traumatic experiences of persecution and genocide have changed traditional views of literature The discussion of historical truth versus aesthetic autonomy takes an unexpected turn when confronted with the experiences of the victims of the Holocaust the Gulag Archipelago the Cultural Revolution Apartheid and other crimes against humanity The question is whether and if so to what extent literary imagination may depart from historical truth In general the first reactions to traumatic historical experiences are autobiographical statements written by witnesses of the events However the second and third generations the sons and daughters of the victims as well as of the victimizers tend to free themselves from this generic restriction and claim their own way of remembering the history of their parents and grandparents They explore their own limits of representation and feel free to use a variety of genres they turn to either realist or postmodernist ironic or grotesque modes of writing Paradoxism and Postmodernism (criticism) Ion Soare,2001-01-01 PARADOXISM'S OFFENSIVE Ion Soare , Therefore the literary histories are put in front of an event a literary one certainly that they will have volens nolens to mention in the worst case if not to analyze at an equal level with the other movements from the so large and complex field of the letters the paradoxism American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Writing to Learn Academic Words Breno B. Silva,2022-08-22 This book highlights the importance of English academic vocabulary for success at university and explores written tasks as effective pedagogical tools to promote the acquisition of academic words The book reviews germane and recent SLA psycholinguistic corpus linguistics and L2 writing research to underscore the challenges associated with the learning of academic words Then it reports on three empirical studies conducted in the Polish context The first study develops a reliable tool to assess the knowledge of academic vocabulary of undergraduate learners The second and third studies investigate the learning of academic words after the writing of sentences and argumentative essays and discuss the role of cognition as a mediator of such learning The book also provides an accessible introduction to linear mixed effect models a powerful reliable and flexible statistical technique that has been gaining popularity among SLA and psycholinguistics researchers
