My name is (your name), I am a citizen of this country, and I have been granted the privilege of knowing (name of immigration applicant) for quite some time now. (Insert more personal details to appeal the immigration applicant's case).

I am very happy to let you know that this person is an outstanding citizen whose personal efforts have done the community a greater good, and I believe that he will do the same in his community upon approval of his immigration status. It is a great honor for me to know him, and find it to be an equally great privilege to be his friend.

Should you have any more questions regarding (name of immigration applicant), please do not hesitate to contact me via phone (insert phone number) or through email at (insert email address). I will be more than happy to answer them.

Thank you for your time and consideration, and have a good day ahead.

decisions were allowed in 2012 The impact of decisions are grave if asylum is not granted when it should be then the UK is failing to protect a vulnerable person If asylum is granted when it is not deserved then the UK may well end up harbouring war criminals and terrorists Those who apply for asylum should be checked against national and international law enforcement agency and security databases to ensure that we are not harbouring those who intend us harm The Home Secretary has to give assurance that any anomalies in the process which have allowed decisions such as this to take place are addressed immediately There are also concerns about the level of support available to those who seek asylum in the UK The Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 section 4 which provides a reduced support system for asylum seekers who had had their claim refused but were unable to return to their country of origin through reasons that were no fault of theirs is not a solution that commonly arise and how do lawyers determine the best ways to resolve them Until recently efforts to answer these questions have focused primarily on rules and legal doctrine rather than the real life situations lawyers face in legal practice The first book to present empirical research on ethical decision making in a variety of practice contexts including corporate litigation securities immigration and divorce law Lawyers in Practice fills a substantial gap in the existing literature Following an introduction emphasizing the increasing importance of understanding context in the legal profession contributions focus on ethical dilemmas ranging from relatively narrow ethical issues to broader problems of professionalism including the prosecutor's obligation to disclose evidence the management of conflicts of interest and loyalty to clients and the court Each chapter details the resolution of a dilemma from the practitioner's point of view that is in turn set within a particular community of practice Timely and practical this book should be required reading for law students as well as students and scholars of law and society

The Racial Politics of Division deconstructs antagonistic discourses that circulated in local Miami media between African Americans white Cubans and black Cubans during the 1980 Mariel Boatlift and the 1994 Balsero Crisis Monika Gosin challenges exclusionary arguments pitting these groups against one another and depicts instead the nuanced ways in which identities have been constructed negotiated rejected and reclaimed in the context of Miami's historical multiethnic tensions Focusing on ideas of legitimacy Gosin argues that dominant race making ideologies of the white establishment regarding worthy citizenship and national belonging shape inter minority conflict as groups negotiate their precarious positioning within the nation Rejecting oversimplified and divisive racial politics The Racial Politics of Division portrays the lived experiences of African Americans white Cubans and Afro Cubans as disrupters in the binary frames of worth citizenship narratives Foregrounding the oft neglected voices of Afro Cubans Gosin posits new narratives regarding racial positioning and notions of solidarity in Miami By looking back to interethnic conflict that foreshadowed current demographic and social trends she provides us with lessons for current debates surrounding immigration interethnic relations and national belonging Gosin also shows us that despite these new demographic realities white racial power continues to reproduce itself by requiring complicity of racialized groups in exchange for a tenuous claim on US citizenship
