From: Madeleine Coleman

To: Diane Johnston
20 Bayport Court
Morrisville, Pennsylvania 19067

Dear Sister in Christ,

I am writing this as a letter to you personally, Diane, my dear sister in Christ, so that if you become anxious about the future, or you need encouragement about what is ahead, you can read it and hopefully hear God speak to your heart.

I am writing this because I want to remind you of the great future God has for you. I know this because He said so. He says you have not seen, nor heard, nor even imagined anything as great as what He has prepared for you (1 Corinthians 2:9).

You have no idea how great your future is. He says that what He has for you is so great that if you truly understood it, you would feel "that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed" in you (Revelation 8:18). That means whatever you envision for your life right now is already too small.

Don't judge your future by what you read in the newspaper or the words someone spoke over you one time. Your future is in God's hands, my dear sister in Christ.

Don't become discouraged if things don't happen as fast as you would like them to. They never do. Don't be concerned if you are not seeing all that you want in response to your prayers. You will.

Bellous,2013-09-13 The book demonstrates the hopeful stance the young take in response to ordinary suffering and significant trauma when adults talk with them about their losses Its underlying themes convey the truth that loss and recovery are normal in the process of growing to maturity It examines the strength of the child s capacity for resilience through partnerships with adults who allow children to focus on the loss and tell the story of its meaning to someone who really hears it The authors agree that adults need to perceive their own losses so that their attentiveness to the young is informed by wisdom that comes through self understanding but also agree that many adults do not offer that help to children because they believe it will make matters worse The book reveals this fear as a false notion by dealing with childhood traumas such as acquired disability warfare HIV AIDS death of one s parents and cultural dislocation The authors are experienced practitioners who provide practical and theoretical insight into the dynamics of loss and recovery The book offers hope for those who live and work with children and youth through its studied approach to addressing loss by describing young people s potential to work towards wholeness even in the face of fundamental losses to their security This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of Children s Spirituality The Catholic Weekly Instructor ,1844 Life and Letters of Henry Van Rensselaer ,1908 Be Not Afraid! Frederic M.
