Board Member Orientation Holly Kleinsasser, 1995 With every new board or council member the face, personality, and skills of a government board change. The sooner that these newcomers are brought up to speed about the business of the organization, the sooner all will benefit from the abilities they possess. This manual is designed to help administrators provide effective in-house orientation to rookie board members and provides a structure through which specific issues and characteristics about each government organization can be discussed. The manual boasts a wide range of forms and worksheets to assist the busy administrator in setting up a customized program in his or her organization.

Board-Seeker Ralph Ward, 2018-07-09 Board Seeker: Your Guidebook and Career Map into the Corporate Boardroom is the first practical guide written specifically to help board-ready leaders and executives gain the knowledge, resources, and confidence to shape their personal onboarding program. Assess your experience that makes you valuable to a board; there's more than you think. Shape this into a powerful outreach portfolio such as board resume, online image, and personal pitch. Gain the targeted network and mentors you'll need, especially your boss. Learn step by step how board searches really happen and how to master each stage. Prepare for the board interview and vetting process and get ready for your first board meeting. With leads, links, checklists, and first-hand success stories, Board Seeker spells out each step you'll take into the boardroom and beyond.

Finding Your Career Niche Anne S. Klein, 2021-01-06 This book is a conversation, not a lecture, for women. If women are wondering how to approach their careers at any age and how to decide when the time is right to have children, there are questions to help make the decision. Chapters in this book provide women additional perspectives on deciding the type of career, taking advantage of opportunities, networking, surviving in the corporate environment, and when it is time to become an entrepreneur.
