The Christian Advocate ,1909      A Complementary Approach to the Interpretation and Translation of Biblical

Metaphors Peter Kamande Thuo,2021-01-31 In this in depth study Peter Kamande Thuo explores the complexity of accurately understanding interpreting and translating Scripture especially biblical metaphors Engaging the need for a stronger theoretical framework for conceptualizing and communicating metaphors across languages Dr Thuo proposes a complementary approach that utilizes relevance theory to bridge gaps presented by conceptual metaphor theory and cognitive linguistics Yet this book is far more than an abstract theoretical treatise Dr Thuo offers the example of the circumcised heart of Romans 2 as a case study providing practical guidance for his readers as he demonstrates the process of translating such a phrase into Kikuyu So doing he reminds us that the challenge of understanding interpreting and applying biblical metaphors across culture and language is not limited to the work of professional translation Rather it is at the heart of all scholarship discipleship and pastoral teaching and the task of every person engaged in reading the word of God

(SEDM),2020-02-06 Good citizenship from a Christian Perspective      Conformity and Conflict Dianna J. Shandy,David W. McCurdy,James P. Spradley,2023-08-17 This best selling collection of engaging articles has enlivened cultural anthropology courses for decades The lead editor of the sixteenth edition Dianna Shandy first encountered Conformity and Conflict as an undergraduate and began teaching from the book in 1999 From the first through the sixteenth edition the editors have chosen classic works and solicited original pieces that powerfully illuminate the nature of culture and its influence on people s lives One of the overarching principles through the years has been to include material on North American cultures so readers can make their own cultural comparisons and see the relevance of anthropology to their own lives Readers sharpen critical thinking skills as they examine their assumptions identify perspectives and assess their beliefs Selections are organized around topics found in many textbooks and courses facilitating usage by instructors who do not want to assign a standard text Part introductions include discussion of many basic anthropological definitions Article introductions coherently and systematically link selections to anthropological concepts Sections and selections include environmental global and practicing anthropological subfields as well as traditional interests such as language gender kinship economics politics law inequality and religion The forty readings in this collection cover a broad range of theoretical perspectives juxtaposing classic and contemporary ethnographic work to introduce students to a broad range of authors The selections provide a fascinating way to look at human experience and make sense of the world around us      Encyclopedia of African American Education Kofi Lomotey,2010 The Encyclopedia of African American Education covers educational institutions at every level from preschool through graduate and professional training with special attention to historically black and predominantly black colleges and universities Other entries cover individuals organizations associations and publications that have had a significant impact on African American education The Encyclopedia also presents information on public policy affecting the education of African Americans including both court decisions and legislation It includes a discussion of curriculum concepts theories and alternative models of education and addresses the topics of gender and sexual orientation religion and the media The Encyclopedia also includes a Reader s Guide provided to help readers find entries on related topics It classifies entries in sixteen categories Alternative Educational Models Associations and Organizations Biographies Collegiate Education Curriculum Economics Gender Graduate and Professional Education Historically Black Colleges and Universities Legal Cases Pre Collegiate Education Psychology and Human Development Public Policy Publications Religious Institutions Segregation Desegregation Some entries appear in more than one category This two volume reference work will be an invaluable resource not only for educators and students but for all readers who seek an understanding of African American education both historically and in the 21st century The Christian Advocate ,1915 Men in Black Mark R.

Levin,2006-09-25 A modern conservative classic Sean Hannity Men in Black couldn t be more timely or important a tremendously important and compelling book Rush Limbaugh One of the finest books on the Constitution and the judiciary I ve read in a long time There is no better source for understanding and grasping the seriousness of this issue Edwin Meese III The Supreme Court has broken through the firewalls constructed by the framers to limit judicial power America s founding fathers had a clear and profound vision for what they wanted our federal government to be says constitutional scholar Mark R Levin in his explosive book Men in Black But today our out of control Supreme Court imperiously strikes down laws and imposes new ones to suit its own liberal whims robbing us of our basic freedoms and the values on which our country was founded In Men in Black How the Supreme Court Is Destroying America Levin exposes countless examples of outrageous Supreme Court abuses from promoting racism in college admissions expelling God and religion from the public square forcing states to confer benefits on illegal aliens and endorsing economic socialism to upholding partial birth abortion restraining political speech and anointing terrorists with rights Levin writes Barely one hundred justices have served on the United States Supreme Court They re unelected they re virtually unaccountable they re largely unknown to most Americans and they serve for life in many ways the justices are more powerful than members of Congress and the president As few as five justices can and do dictate economic cultural criminal and security policy for the entire nation In Men in Black you will learn How the Supreme Court protects virtual child pornography and flag burning as forms of free speech but denies teenagers the right to hear an invocation mentioning God at a high school graduation ceremony because it might be coercive How a former Klansman and virulently anti Catholic Supreme Court justice inserted the words wall of separation between church and state in a 1947 Supreme Court decision a phrase repeated today by those who claim to stand for civil liberty How Justice Harry Blackmun a one time conservative appointee and the author of Roe v Wade was influenced by fan mail much like an entertainer or politician which helped him to evolve into an ardent activist for gay rights and against the death penalty How the Supreme Court has dictated that illegal aliens have a constitutional right to attend public schools and that other immigrants qualify for welfare benefits tuition assistance and even civil service jobs     Shepherding Souls Shawn O. Strout,2024-07-16 A complete resource for the theology liturgy and practice of the pastoral offices This easy to use resource for clergy and lay liturgical leaders examines baptism confirmation marriage reconciliation of the penitent ministration to the sick and burial offering background and guidance for each liturgy Each chapter begins with brief historical and theological contexts followed by a discussion of pastoral and liturgical issues relevant to each rite Because cultural considerations are often central to the pastoral offices each chapter includes an overview of cultural practices surrounding each liturgy that may be unfamiliar to clergy Taking into account theological and liturgical perspectives from a variety of denominations Shepherding Souls is designed to be useful in any church This trusted resource provides the busy church leader with everything needed to prepare for and administer pastoral offices     North-western Christian Advocate ,1921

Hood, Jr.,2016-01-29 Psychology and Spiritual Transformation in a Substance Abuse Program utilizes a five year longitudinal study to examine the evolving psychological and spiritual condition of victims of substance abuse who were treated as part of the Lazarus Project a Pentecostal faith based residency program span     Frontiers in Spiritual Leadership Scott T. Allison,Craig T. Kocher,George R. Goethals,2017-03-03 Abraham Lincoln s iconic phrase the better angels of our nature revealed his belief that the noblest qualities of humanity would heal a divided nation In Frontiers in Spiritual Leadership an interdisciplinary group of leading scholars from the University of Richmond explore these noble qualities and how leaders such as Lincoln make that expression possible They review the landscape of spiritual leadership and the spiritual principles that are fundamental to effective and inspired leadership emphasizing the values of love forgiveness purpose trust sacrifice equality and liberty among others Through an analysis of historical examples and contemporary issues this book celebrates the many gifted and enlightened individuals whose leadership embodies the most exquisite qualities of humanity It outlines the conceptual linkage between leadership and spirituality within groups and organizations and will appeal to students and scholars of leadership ethics religion philosophy psychology and human growth potential     Opening the Red Door John A. Bernbaum,2019-09-17 After the Berlin Wall fell a group of Christian colleges in the U S seized the opportunity to help build a faith based university in Moscow Told by the school s founder and president this is the story of the rise and fall of the first accredited Christian liberal arts university in Russia s history offering unique insight on Russia s post communist transition and the construction of a cultural educational bridge between the two superpowers     Carceral Citizens Caroline M. Parker,2025-02-10 A nuanced take on how carceral expansions are changing labor and social life In Carceral Citizens anthropologist Caroline M Parker offers an ethnographic portrait of therapeutic communities in Puerto Rico the oldest colony in the Americas As nonprofits nested within the carceral state therapeutic communities serve as reeducation and recovery centers for the mostly male drug offenders who serve out their sentences engaged in manual labor and prayer The most surprising aspect of these centers however is that their graduates often remain long after the completion of their term working as self appointed peer counselors in a mixture of volunteer and low wage positions Parker seeks to explain this dynamic by showing how in these therapeutic communities criminalized men find new and meaningful ways of living in the shadow of the prison Through their participation in the day to day functioning of the centers they discover and cultivate alternative forms of belonging livelihood and citizenship despite living within the restrictions of the carceral state Situating her study against the backdrop of Puerto Rico s colonial history and with findings that extend across Latin America Parker challenges common assumptions about confinement labor and rehabilitation By delving into lives shaped by the convergence of imperialism the carceral state and self help she offers a fresh understanding of the transformations of labor and social life brought about by mass incarceration

Developments in Aging, 1991 ,1992 Sacred Mysteries Dennis Chester Smolarski,1995 Sacred Mysteries opens by reflecting on the continual process of reform in the church and on the foundational principles for all liturgical action It then moves to a discussion of each of the sacraments with particular reference to the way they are ritualized in the assembly A final chapter addresses practices that can cloud the experience of mystery during liturgical celebrations and thus inhibit rather than enhance the power of the rite

Saving Souls, Serving Society Heidi Rolland Unruh,Ronald J. Sider,2005-10-06 As public funding for social services has been slashed there has arisen an unprecedented interest in the potential and dangers of faith based institutions as agents of social change This text seeks to answer pressing questions surrounding this important and controversial issue

Jesus Loves Japan Suma Ikeuchi,2023-05-25 A study of ethnic Japanese Brazilian Pentecostal Christians living in Japan After the introduction of the long term resident visa the mass migration of Nikkeis Japanese Brazilians has led to roughly 190 000 Brazilian nationals living in Japan While the ancestry based visa confers Nikkeis right to settlement virtually as a right of blood their ethnic ambiguity and working class profile often prevent them from feeling at home in their supposed ethnic homeland In response many have converted to Pentecostalism reflecting the explosive trend across Latin America since the 1970s Jesus Loves Japan offers a rare window into lives at the crossroads of return migration and global Pentecostalism Suma Ikeuchi argues that charismatic Christianity appeals to Nikkei migrants as a third culture one that transcends ethno national boundaries and offers a way out of a reality marked by stagnant national indifference Jesus Loves Japan insightfully describes the political process of homecoming through the lens of religion and the ubiquitous figure of the migrant as the pilgrim of a transnational future Praise for Jesus Loves Japan Transnational migrants find spiritual sustenance in Suma Ikeuchi s careful sensitive ethnography In showing how Pentecostalism grants meaning to a bleak existence Ikeuchi opens new vistas in our understanding of Japanese Brazilians residing in Japan She offers fresh insights to all interested in identity puzzles self making religious conversion and global movement Daniel T Linger Professor Emeritus of Anthropology University of California Santa Cruz Suma Ikeuchi's nuanced fieldwork among Japanese Brazilians Nikkei employed in Japan exposes the flawed hemato logic of government and corporate officials who believed that ancestry blood alone would make Nikkei more assimilable than other foreign guest workers This book demonstrates the primacy of culture over blood as a cipher for ethnicity Jennifer Robertson author of Robo Sapiens Japanicus Robots Gender Family and the Japanese Nation 2018 This is a remarkable book about a remarkable situation Through wonderfully vivid ethnography Ikeuchi documents the lives of Brazilian Pentecostal converts in Japan as they negotiate identities as migrants homecomers pilgrims and believers In the process the book becomes an anthropological meditation on time belonging sincerity and the multiple meanings of making connections through blood Simon Coleman Chancellor Jackman Professor University of Toronto *Japan Times.
