Women in the Ministry of Jesus Ben Witherington, 1987-10-22 Women in the Ministry of Jesus is a study of both of Jesus' attitudes towards women as reflected in his words and deeds and of the women who were part of his ministry or who interacted with him according to the Gospel accounts. The book seeks to provide a balanced analysis of the relevant Biblical material and also the historical background necessary to illuminate the setting of the Gospel events. Particular attention is given to related issues such as Jesus' views on marriage, the family and the single life as well as his teaching on adultery, the laws of the clean and unclean and the Sabbath. Witherington concludes that Jesus cannot be categorized neatly either as chauvinist or as feminist.

The Committee looks to the recently formed Stabilisation Unit, owned by the Department for International Development, the Foreign and Commonwealth Office and the Ministry of Defence, to maintain a capacity to deploy significant numbers of personnel for post-conflict reconstruction and to ensure that vital knowledge and skills gained during deployments in Iraq and Afghanistan are retained and built on. The Comprehensive Approach requires close work with local nationals to build up their capability and confidence in all fields including security, governance, law and order and
