Economics Of Intercollegiate Sports, The (Second Edition) John C. Leadley, Randy R. Grant, Zenon X.

Zygmunt, 2014-10-21 Why do universities place so much emphasis on athletics? Are the salaries of head coaches excessive? Should student athletes be paid? Why is there so much cheating in college sports? Should athletic departments be subsidized by the university? Does Title IX unfairly discriminate against men's sports? This textbook is designed to help teach students about the business of college sports, particularly the big money sports of football and basketball, allowing them to answer these and other important questions. The book provides undergraduate students with the information and economic tools to analyze the behavior of the NCAA athletic conferences and individual colleges and universities in the market for college sports. Specific topics include the markets for athletes and coaches, the importance of athletics for colleges and universities, the finances of athletic departments, the influence of the media in commercializing college sports, issues of race and gender, and the possibilities for reforming college sports.

Innovations in Services Marketing and Management: Strategies for Emerging Economies Goyal, Anita, 2013-10-31 Modern corporations face a variety of challenges and opportunities in the field of sustainable development. Affirmative Action at a Crossroads: Fisher and Forward Edna Chun, Alvin Evans, 2015-05-20 The urgency of developing workable, race-neutral admissions strategies that maximize the benefits of student diversity has increased. This practical guide offers concrete recommendations and strategies for the creation of a campus ecosystem that maximizes the structural, curricular, and interactional benefits of diversity, extensive empirical findings, and a rich research literature. Opportunities for campuses to craft programs, processes, and intervention that maximize student learning outcomes related to diversity and alternative strategies for addressing disadvantage, including the use of socioeconomic status and state-based percent plans, are discussed. This book provides a comprehensive overview of key issues and strategic approaches that will assist institutions of higher education in fostering demographic diversity and building inclusive and welcoming campus environments. This is the fourth issue of the 41st volume of the Jossey-Bass series ASHE Higher Education Report. Each monograph is the definitive analysis of a tough higher education issue based on thorough research of pertinent literature and institutional experiences Topics are identified by a national survey Noted practitioners and scholars are then commissioned to write the reports with experts providing critical reviews of each manuscript before publication
