Woman and Nation Jean Kim,2021-10-01 Kim reads the Gospel of John from a postcolonial feminist perspective as a patriarchal nationalist discourse The author examines effects of colonialism in twentieth century Korean cultural experience as seen in social memory pervasive emotional nonlinear experience of the collective or oral traditions to develop an intercontextual lens through which she examines the role of the Johannine female characters in supporting Jesus s role as a national hero and in functioning as continuers of the nation In her unique handling of the Gospel of John the author describes how John s resistance to Roman imperial power defines and shapes the boundaries of his Jewish nationalism in relation to the symbolic meanings attached to the female characters sexuality and gender roles Geography, Religion, Gods, and Saints in the Eastern Mediterranean Erica Ferg,2020-01-16 Geography Religion Gods and Saints in the Eastern Mediterranean explores the influence of geography on religion and highlights a largely unknown story of religious history in the Eastern Mediterranean. In the Levant, agricultural communities of Jews, Christians, and Muslims jointly venerated and largely shared three important saints or holy figures: Jewish Elijah, Christian St. George, and Muslim al-Khidr. These figures share peculiar characteristics such as associations with rain, greenness, fertility, and storms. Only in the Eastern Mediterranean are Elijah, St. George, and al-Khidr shared between religious communities or characterized by these same agricultural attributes. Attributes that also were shared by regional religious figures from earlier time periods such as the ancient Near Eastern Storm god Baal Hadad and Levantine Zeus. This book tells the story of how that came to be and suggests that the figures share specific characteristics over a very long period of time because these motifs were shaped by the geography of the region. Ultimately, this book suggests that regional geography has influenced regional religion; that Judaism, Christianity, and Islam are not historically or textually speaking separate religious traditions even if Jews, Christians, and Muslims are members of distinct religious communities; and that shared religious practices between members of these and other local religious communities are not unusual. Instead, shared practices arose out of a common geographical environment and an interconnected religious heritage and are a natural historical feature of religion in the Eastern Mediterranean. This volume will be of interest to students of ancient Near Eastern religions, Judaism, Christianity, Islam, sainthood, agricultural communities in the ancient Near East, Middle Eastern religious and cultural history, and the relationships between geography and religion.
