Livelihoods of Ethnic Minorities in Rural Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker, Patience Chadambuka, Joshua Matanzima, 2022-04-21
The book provides empirically rich case studies of the lives and livelihoods of marginalised ethnic minorities in colonial and post colonial Zimbabwe with a specific focus on diverse rural areas It demonstrates the dynamic and complex relationships existing between ethnic minorities and livelihoods and analyses the ways in which projects of belonging and identity formation amongst these ethnic minorities are entangled in their respective livelihood construction projects and vice versa The ethnic minorities include those considered indigenous to Zimbabwe and those often defined as aliens including ethnicities with a transnational presence in southern Africa The ethnicities studied in the book include the following Chewa Doma Tonga Tshwa San Shangane Basotho Ndaue Hlengwe and Nambya By studying their livelihoods in particular this book offers the first full manuscript about ethnic minorities in Zimbabwe In doing so it highlights the significance of these ethnic minorities to Zimbabwean history politics and society

The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimaged in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature

Indigenous Archives in Postcolonial Contexts Mpho Ngoepe, Sindiso Bhebhe, 2023-12-06 Indigenous Archives in Postcolonial Contexts revisits the definition of a record and extends it to include memory murals rock art paintings and other objects Drawing on five years of research and examples from Zimbabwe Botswana and South Africa the authors analyse archives in the African context Considering issues such as authentication ownership and copyright the book considers how murals and their like can be used as extended or counter archives Arguing that extended archives can reach people in a way that traditional archives cannot and that such archives can be used to bridge the gaps identified within archival repositories the authors also examine how such archives are managed and authenticated using traditional archival principles Presenting case studies from organisations such as Gay and Lesbian Memory in Action Archives GALA and heritage projects such as the Makgabeng Open Cultural Museum the authors also analyse Indigenous family praises and songs and explore how such records are preserved and transmitted to the next generation Indigenous Archives in Postcolonial Contexts demonstrates how the voices of the marginalised can be incorporated into archives Making an important contribution to the effort to decolonise African archives the book will be essential reading for academics and students working in archival studies library and information science Indigenous studies African studies cultural heritage history and anthropology Climate Change

Epistemologies in Southern Africa Jörn Ahrens, Ernst Halbmayer, 2023-05-26 This book investigates the social and cultural dimensions of climate change in Southern Africa focusing on how knowledge about climate change is conceived and conveyed Despite contributing very little to the global production of emissions the African continent looks set to be the hardest hit by climate change Adopting a decolonial perspective this book argues that knowledge and discourse about climate change has largely disregarded African epistemologies leading to inequalities in knowledge systems Only by considering regionally specific forms of conceptualizing perceiving and responding to climate change can these global problems be tackled First exploring African epistemologies of climate change the book then goes on to the social impacts of climate change matters of climate justice and finally institutional change and adaptation Providing important insights into the social and cultural perception and communication of climate change in Africa this book will be of interest to researchers from across the fields of African studies sociology anthropology philosophy political science climate change and geography
