Past Scents Jonathan Reinartz, 2014-03-30 In this comprehensive and engaging volume medical historian Jonathan Reinartz offers a historiography of smell from ancient to modern times Synthesizing existing scholarship in the field he shows how people have relied on their olfactory sense to understand and engage with both their immediate environments and wider corporal and spiritual worlds This broad survey demonstrates how each community or commodity possesses or has been thought to possess its own peculiar scent Through the meanings associated with smells osmologies develop what cultural anthropologists have termed the systems that utilize smells to classify people and objects in ways that define their relations to each other and their relative values within a particular culture European Christians for instance relied on their noses to differentiate Christians from heathens whites from people of color women from men virgins from harlots artisans from aristocracy and pollution from perfume This reliance on smell was not limited to the global North Around the world Reinartz shows people used scents to signify individual and group identity in a morally constructed universe where the good smelled pleasant and their opposites reeked With chapters including Heavenly Scents Fragrant Lucre and Odorous Others Reinartz s timely survey is a useful and entertaining look at the history of one of our most important but least understood senses

Shaping the Church Martyn Percy, 2010 Shaping the Church seeks to dynamically alter the way that theologians ecclesiologists students of religion and ministers look at the church Taking the ideas of composition formation and vocation as basic ecclesial categories Martyn Percy explores how apparently innocent and incidental material is in fact highly significant for the shaping of theological and ecclesiological horizons The Introduction sets the tone with a meditation on how the apparently ordinary scent of a country church can be redolent with meaning setting the tone of expectation in relation to subsequent worship This book is not however simply about reading meanings into events ideas conversations and contexts Rather it sets out to faithfully interpret much of the material that surrounds us yet is often taken for granted or more usually unnoticed The book is an invitation to involve the scholar or minister paying close and patient attention to beliefs language artefacts rituals practices and other material all of which are constitutive for ecclesial life and theological identity Lire Descartes aujourd'hui Maurice F. Wiles, Edward Yarnold, 2001 This is Improbable Too Marc Abrahams, 2014-03-06 The mind behind the infamous Ig Nobel Prizes presents an addictive collection of improbable research all about us and you Marc Abrahams collects the odd the imaginative and the brilliantly improbable Here he turns to research on the ins and outs of the very improbable evolutionary innovation that is the human body brain included What s the best way to get a monkey to floss regularly How much dandruff do Pakistani soldiers have If you add an extra henchman to your bank robbing gang how much more money will you earn How many dimples will be found on the cheeks of 28 282 Greek children Who is the Einstein of pork carcasses Art Scents Larry E. Shiner, 2020 In the last twenty years there has been a marked increase in artists using smells in their works at the same time that scents are being used to accompany plays films and music There is also an increase in ambient scenting in stores and hotels and leading chefs are adding unusual scents to cuisine The book explores these olfactory activities and the aesthetic and ethical issues they raise as well as answering the traditional disparagement of the sense of smell by leading intellectuals such as Kant Darwin and Freud drawing on current science social science and humanities as well as literature The Spirit of Witness Martyn Percy, 2023-02-28 The term witness has become synonymous with evangelism but true witnessing is usually found in dissenting it refuses to bow to idols or to take the easy road or deny Christ and all he died for This collection is rooted in that belief that having the mind of Christ means we will do things differently It offers practical resources for pastoral care that celebrates people on the margins of the church and provides liturgies for those who suffer racism or injustice who experience tragedy and loss who raise their voices in protest or lament and more These texts do not carry the stamp of approval of any church body but will bring the light of the gospel where it is needed Arranged in six sections it includes contributions from well known and new voices covering the themes of Witness in Ordinary Time Communion Birth and Baptism United in Love Suffering Presence Death and Resurrection Celibate Marriages in Late Antique and Byzantine Hagiography Anne P. Alwis, 2011-10-27 Celibate Marriages in Late Antique and Byzantine Hagiography explores the puzzling phenomenon of celibate marriage as depicted in the lives of three couples who achieved sainthood Marriage without intercourse appears to have no purpose especially in Christian antiquity yet these three tales were copied for centuries What messages were they promoting What did it mean to be a virgin husband and a virgin wife Including full translations this volume sets each life in its historical context and by examining their individual and shared themes the book shows that the tension raised by pitting marriage against celibacy is constantly debated It also highlights the ingenuity of Byzantine hagiographers as they attempted to reconcile this curious paradox This book addresses a gap in late Antique and Byzantine hagiographic studies where primary sources and interpretative material are very rarely presented in the same volume By providing a variety of contexts to the material a much more comprehensive revealing and holistic picture of celibate marriage emerges Untamed Gospel Martyn Percy, 2017-08-30 Untamed Gospel destined to precipitate a revolution in our understanding of the sensibilities that underpinned the mentalities of past epochs David Howes author of Sensual Relations Engaging the Senses in Culture and Social Theory Mark M Smith presents a far ranging essay on the history of the senses that serves simultaneously as a good introduction to the historiography If one feels in danger of sensory overload from this growing body of scholarship Smith s piece is a useful preventive Leigh E Schmidt author of Restless Souls The Making of American Spirituality This is a masterful overview The history of the senses has been a frontier field for a while now Mark Smith draws together what we know with an impressive sensory range and encourages further work A really exciting survey Peter N Stearns author of American Fear The Causes and Consequences of High Anxiety Who would ever have guessed that a book on the history of the senses seeing hearing touching tasting and smelling could be informative thought provoking and at the same time most entertaining Ranging in both time and locale Mark Smith s Sensing the Past makes even the philosophy about the senses from ancient times to now both learned and exciting This work will draw scholars into under recognized subjects and lay readers into a world we simply but unwisely take for granted Bertram Wyatt Brown author of Southern Honor Ethics and Behavior in the Old South Mark M Smith has a good record of communicating his research to a broad constituency within and beyond the academy This will be required reading for anyone addressing sensory history Penelope Gouk author of Music Science and Natural Magic in Seventeenth Century England This is a fine cultural history of the body which takes Western and Eastern traditions and their texts quite seriously Smith views a history of the senses not only from below but places it squarely in the historical imagination It will be of interest to a wide range of readers Sander L Gilman author of Difference and Pathology The Works of Saint Augustine Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1990 As the psalms are a microcosm of the Old Testament so the Expositions of the Psalms can be seen as a microcosm of Augustinian thought In the Book of Psalms are to be found the history of the people of Israel the theology and spirituality of the Old Covenant and a treasury of human experience expressed in prayer and poetry So too does the work of expounding the psalms recapitulate and focus the experiences of Augustine s personal life his theological reflections and his pastoral concerns as Bishop of Hippo Publisher s website To Train His Soul in Books Robin Darling Young, Monica J. culture it begins with the development of Syriac poetry the genre beloved by Ephrem and other anonymous authors It considers the long tradition of Aramaic and Syriac words for the chronic condition of sin and explores the dimensions of the immense work of Syriac translators with a study of the Syriac life of Athanasius Essays consider the activity of learned ascetics with a proposal of the likely monastic origin of the Apocalypse of Daniel the goal and concept of renunciation and the changes rung by Syriac speaking ascetics on the daily reality of housekeeping Also included in the volume are two essays on the influence of Syriac literary culture on Greek traditions and in turn ascetic life Finally an original poem in Syriac demonstrates the continuing vitality of this culture both in its homeland and in the Diaspora These essays seek to extend and honor the work of renowned scholar and pillar of the Department of Semitic and Egyptian Languages at the Catholic University of America Sidney H Griffith Robin Darling Young is associate professor of theology at the University of Notre Dame Monica J Blanchard is curator of the Semitics Institute of Christian Oriental Research Library at the Catholic University of America Contributors Joseph P Amar Gary A Anderson Monica J Blanchard Sebastian Brock Alexander Golitzin Susan Ashbrook Harvey Michael J Hollerich Francisco Javier Martinez Kathleen McVey Shawqi Talia and Robin Darling Young

Women in John's Gospel Susan Miller, 2023-01-26 Closely examines John's portrayal of women in relation to discipleship and the theme of new creation arguing that these depictions are influenced by his apocalyptic world view By employing historical and literary methods of biblical interpretation to analyse John's presentation of women and gender Miller explores the extent to which John gives any indications of the female role in both John's community and the beginnings of the Christian faith Beginning with the Virgin Mary's portrayal at the wedding at Cana where she prompts Jesus to carry out his first sign Miller then thoroughly assesses several crucial female characters in John to stress how Jesus' female followers truly recognise him as the Messiah These include the Samaritan woman Martha and Mary of Bethany and Mary Magdalene and her encounter with Jesus in the garden Crucially Miller suggests that John's frequent use of woman links these female followers particular Jesus' venerated mother with the figure of Eve in Genesis and she concludes that women are associated with the hour of Jesus when he casts out the ruler of the world and inaugurates the new creation Aromas of Asia Hannah Gould, Gwyn McClelland, 2023-10-12 A uniquely powerful marker of ethnic gender and class identities scent can also overwhelm previously constructed boundaries and transform social sensory realities within contexts of environmental degradation pathogen outbreaks and racial politics This innovative multidisciplinary volume critically examines olfaction in Asian societies with the goal of unlocking its full potential as an analytical frame and lived phenomenon Featuring contributions from international scholars with deep knowledge of the region this volume conceptualizes Asia and its borders as a dynamic transnationally connected space of olfactory exchange Using examples such as trade along the Silk Road the diffusion of dharmic religious traditions out of South Asia the waves of invasion colonization and forced relocation that shaped the history of the continent and other sensory highways of contact the contributors break down essentializing
