

The book cover features a blue-toned background. At the top, a large silhouette of a man's head and shoulders is shown in profile, facing right, with a handgun visible behind his neck. In the center, the Golden Gate Bridge is visible through a misty or foggy atmosphere. At the bottom, a small silhouette of a person stands on a dark, rocky outcrop, looking out over the water and the bridge. The title 'Jack Carr' is written in large white letters, and 'RED SKY MOURNING' is in large red letters.

Earthquakes and Animals M. Ikeya, 2004 Those who survive major earthquakes often report the occurrence of mysterious phenomena beforehand unusual animal and plant behavior lightning strange clouds and malfunctioning electrical appliances In fact these stories are legendary the world over But are they merely legends Are the many people who report them just superstitious or suffering from over active imaginations Earthquakes and Animals brings objective science to bear on these old legends But this is not the suspect science associated with recent attempts to validate UFO sightings The book places in front of the reader the simple laboratory evidence for the behaviour of animals plants and objects when they are subjected to intense electromagnetic pulses In many cases they behave in ways that have been recorded for centuries and are still reported today as earthquake related Written for both the general public and scientists Earthquakes and Animals demonstrates experimentally a physical basis for the old earthquake legends It also adds tantalisingly to the science of earthquake prediction and cautiously suggests a legitimate new field of study electromagnetic seismology
